

'I'VE GOT A THEORY ABOUT THIS' —Clint Bidwell was born to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bidwell at 10:23 p.m. last Dec. 31, thus barely qualifying papa for a 1957 income tax exemption. On his first birthday, he tackles the 1958 tax return. "First you make a party of it," he says.

NOW, DOWN TO WORK —Clint sharpens pencil to try to figure out way for Papa to save a bit on the '58 tax—since no new tax exemption has arrived in the Bidwell home at 11 Claire way, Bel Aire, during this calendar year. "Let's see, you divide the frammy by the gafoozis."

'HEY! I FOUND A LOOP-HOLE!' —Clint's face lights up as he "solves" Uncle Sam's complicated tax form. "It's child's play!" he declares. "Anybody can see that broken toys are deductible!"

'DOES ANYBODY HAVE AN ASPIRIN?' —This income tax figuring proves more of a chore than Clint expected. His head, swimming with figures, starts to ache just like those of many of his elders in the next few months.

'SOMETIMES I GET SO MAD!' —How can anybody understand this wording, anyhow? "... shown on line 11, page 1, less 10 per cent thereof, and less the deduction for exemptions ..." Mighty frustrating! Maybe Clint should call in his brothers, Ray, 8, and Steve, 10, to help out.

'DO YOU REALLY THINK THEY'LL INVESTIGATE?' —Finally, Clint finds the best way to get rid of an income tax problem: Eat it. It may give you indigestion for awhile, but that's soon over. (Independent Journal photos by Ken Molino)

Last Look At '58; Politics, Weather Played Key Roles

Politics, property values, precipitation and a private reservoir produced Marin County's top news stories of 1958.

Central figure in the first two categories was veteran County Assessor George W. Hall. For him, 1958 was a year of frustration and defeat.

And when the rain began falling in January, no one dreamed that an associate justice of the California Supreme Court, Jesse W. Carter of Sleepy Hollow, would emerge as the stormiest figure in a violent storm season that was to extend well into April.

Both Hall and Carter found themselves embroiled in angry conflict with the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

Stork Brings 3 Little Tax Exemptions

There's always a great fuss made about babies born on New Year's Day, but just about any father would rather have the new arrival on Dec. 31.

For a baby born Dec. 31 means an income tax exemption for the full year—$600. It assures a comforting refund after the tax return is filed with Uncle Sam.

By noon today, three Marin couples were the lucky parents of babies born on the last day of 1958.

A son, to be named Paul Gerard, was born at 4 a.m. to Mrs. Edward (Catherine) Giringhelli of San Rafael, weighing in at 8 pounds, 1 ounce.

For Mr. and Mrs. Arthur (Wanda) Park of Petaluma, it was a daughter, born at 4:25 a.m. and weighing 6 pounds, 13 ounces. She'll be named Lindsey Marie.

Albert Corporation Acquires Litchfield's Bradley Apts.

Albert's, Inc., has purchased one of the Litchfield apartment buildings in San Rafael for $150,000.

Irving Litchfield, operator of Bermuda Palms Motel and several apartment buildings, announced he sold his Bradley Arms Apartment at 1012 Mission avenue to Albert's because he wants to spread his holdings in different spots instead of concentrating them in one location.

Hall because he thought the board was moving too fast into the use of new property appraisal figures and Carter because he thought the board violated his fundamental rights as a citizen after part of his hillside reservoir gave way during a March storm.

There were political repercussions to Carter's "tragedy of Sleepy Hollow." At the Nov. 4 general election, the justice's Marin County neighbors cast a whopping protest vote against his bid for another 12-year Supreme Court term. Despite the local negative vote (26,546 to 17,711), statewide returns swept Carter back into office.

In June, Marin's electorate decided it had had enough of Assessor Hall, who had been entrenched in office nearly a quarter of a century. The primary election upset victory was scored by Bert W. Broemmel, deputy county auditor. Using a broom as his campaign symbol, Broemmel had called for a "clean sweep" in the assessor's office.

An almost equally stunning upset was elimination from the sheriff's race of incumbent David Menary in the June primary. The same election saw three other incumbents returned to office by comfortable margins — Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich, County Auditor Leon de Lisle and 1st District Supervisor Walter R. Castro.

George Hall's troubles started in January and continued through August, when the board of supervisors pulled off a miracle by completing, on schedule, marathon hearings on some 3,600 protests to new property assessments under Marin's million-dollar reappraisal program.

Hall had predicted correctly that thousands of protests would greet assessments based on the new appraisals, but his relentless efforts to postpone use of the new figures for another year were thwarted at

Freitas Property Donated To Church

The old Freitas ranch and home, valued in excess of $100,000, was donated today to the Catholic Church in memory of the late Manuel T. Freitas Sr. and his wife, Maria Bettencourt Freitas.

The large home and 10-acre estate had been owned by the Freitas family since 1898. The house was built in 1868 by John Lucas, for whom Lucas Valley is named. It is located just south of Terra Linda subdivision.

The gift was recorded today with County Recorder Noel T. Giacomini. The property will be used as a church and school site.

Rev. Daniel J. McAlister of St. Raphael's Church in San Rafael announced that every effort will be made to preserve the original Freitas home. It will be remodeled to function as part of the Santa Venetia Parish, he said.

Father McAlister said it will be several weeks before a name is selected for the new church site and plans are developed for conversion into a church and school.

Members of the Freitas family who donated the property to the church include Rose Freitas Rose of San Rafael Meadows, Manuel T. Freitas of San Rafael, Helen Freitas Tichenor of Piedmont, Carlos R. Freitas, San Rafael attorney and former superior court judge; Louis G. Freitas of San Rafael, Walter F. Freitas, San Rafael attorney, and Mrs. Frances T. O'Mara of San Rafael.

The gift was accepted by Archbishop John J. Mitty of San Francisco in behalf of the church.

Brush Fire Erupts In South State

TOPANGA CANYON — A brush fire broke out today on the crest of the Santa Monica Mountains and, fanned by dry winds, spread explosively toward homes in this Southern California resort area.

Firemen, police and sheriff's deputies began urging residents to evacuate. Squad cars with loudspeakers raced through the streets spreading the alarm.

The scene is in brushy hills bordering the Pacific Ocean about 20 miles west of downtown Los Angeles.

Cuba Claims Army Halts Rebel Attack

Insurgents driven From Key City, Government Says

HAVANA, Cuba — Army forces today smashed a rebel attempt to capture Santa Clara in central Cuba and are driving the insurgents eastward, the government said.

Rebel broadcasts conceded that the fighting now had moved north and east of that city controlling highway from Havana to eastern Cuba.

BIG PUSH

Fighters, bombers, artillery, tanks, armored cars and infantry were reported attacking rebels everywhere in Las Villas province, of which Santa Clara is the capital.

A rebel broadcast said forces in the town of Cruces just west of Santa Clara "are no longer able to resist in the face of attacks by tanks."

Government sources put rebel casualties in the furious street-by-street fighting in Santa Clara at 3,000 killed or wounded.

REBELS IN BAD WAY

Government losses were not indicated.

The rebels appeared to be in a bad way. One rebel commander was heard radioing urgently for reinforcements. The government is known to outnumber the rebels in Las Villas.

Rebel broadcasts, which had been saying the overthrow of Batista was imminent, stopped talking about the fighting in Las Villas.

The rebels claimed new successes in Oriente. They said they captured the city of Guanatanamo, 27 miles north of the U. S. naval base of the same name.

PLANES RAID TOWNS

Government air raids on at least five smaller towns in Las Villas confirmed that the rebels were strongly entrenched in the southern part of the province, whose rural areas they claim to dominate. Rebel control of Las Villas would cut the island republic in half.

The rebel radio also said insurgents had extended their holdings in Oriente province, at the eastern end of Cuba.

Tug Sinks, Marin Crewman Rescued

A Sausalito seaman and two fellow crewmen, who abandoned a sinking salvage tug off the Oregon coast last night, were rescued from the Pacific Ocean today by a Coast Guard launch. (Earlier story on page 22.)

United Press International identified the Sausalito as Art Tillet. He is not listed in the Marin telephone book or Marin County Directory.

Rescued with Tillet were Dee McVey of Eel Lake, Ore., and Sandy Settle of Oakland, according to UPI. Settle was identified as skipper of the salvage tug Elsie T, which radioed yesterday afternoon it had struck an object and was taking water rapidly.

The men, reportedly spotted by a lumber mill worker from the shore near Brookings, Ore., were said to be in good condition. The mill worker saw their whaleboat flying a white flag and notified the Coast Guard. The survivors were being taken to a lifeboat station near Port Orford.

The Elsie T left Coos Bay, Ore., Monday, accompanied by another craft, the Ceebee. The vessels became separated during the night. There was no trace of the Elsie T, which was believed to have sunk after striking an object in the Pacific about 20 miles off Brookings.

The Coast Guard had sent cutters and planes to search for the men.

Industrial Unit Cites 1958 Rise

Marin County's population increased this year by nearly 7,500 persons to a shade under 140,000, a gain of 5.6 per cent over 1957, according to estimates in a report released today by the Marin Development Foundation.

Using school district enrollment figures and totals from special censuses in Corte Madera, Mill Valley and Belvedere, the foundation arrived at a total estimated Marin population of 139,869. This is an increase of 7,428 over the foundation's Jan. 1 estimate of 132,441.

63.4% INCREASE

Since the 1950 census, when Marin had 85,619 people, the population has risen 63.4 per cent, foundation studies indicate.

Greatest percentage gain this year among the county's cities and towns was the 17.7 per cent chalked up by Corte Madera, which, according to the foundation, went from 4,264 to 5,018 persons.

The foundation reported that Corte Madera also registered the greatest growth since 1950 with an increase of 160.3 per cent—from 1,928 to 5,018.

Belvedere was second in percentage of growth this year with 13.6 (from 1,810 to 2,056), the report said, while Larkspur was third with 10.4 per cent (from 4,316 to 4,766).

Novato Couple Adopts Orphan Korean Infant

The parents of three children, Lt. and Mrs. David Campbell of Novato, now also are the foster parents of a fourth — an undernourished American-Korean orphan baby, receiving special care at Letterman Army Hospital in San Francisco.

The eight-month-old child was brought to this country by air, landing at Portland, Ore., last Friday, along with 100 other waifs from Korea. Mrs. Campbell returned home to Novato Saturday with her new infant, and yesterday placed her in the hospital after she became ill.

5 Acres Of Grass Burn In N. Marin

Five acres of grass went up in flame near Raphael Village yesterday in a rare end-of-the-year grass fire.

Chief George J. Cavallero of the Novato Fire Department said children may have started the blaze. It proved, he said, that even recent rains had not eliminated the hazards of open fires. (The Novato Fire District, along with others in Marin, ended "fire season" burning restrictions on Christmas eve.)

Twelve firemen with three trucks from both Novato fire stations rushed to the old Pacheco ranch property one-half mile west of Ulloa court at 2:55 p.m. They were faced with a fast-moving range fire that had started in the middle of the open field.

The flames were controlled in a matter of minutes, but firemen were at the scene for 40 minutes wetting down the embers.

Drunk Driver Fined

William Alexander Hanton, 36, of 78th Field Maintenance Squadron, Hamilton Air Force Base, was sentenced yesterday for drunken driving on Highway 101 last Nov. 25. Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court fined Hanton $200 and put him on 18 months' supervised probation.

San Rafael gave birth to a daughter, weighing 6 pounds, 3 ounces, at 6:30 a.m.

All three arrived at Marin General Hospital. More births were expected there today, and Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital reported at least one "last day exemption" baby scheduled there this afternoon.

Last Dec. 31, babies were born to 10 Marin couples: Sons to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ryan of San Anselmo, Mrs. and Mrs. James Tongue of Corte Madera, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Parenteau of Corte Madera, Mr. and Mrs. James Hanks of Sausalito, Mr. and Mrs. Douglass Roy of San Anselmo, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Johnson of San Rafael, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Farrin of Corte Madera and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bidwell of Bel Aire; daughters to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Trother of San Rafael and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Watson of San Rafael.

mates for Marin's other cities and towns:

Sausalito, 5,660, up 4.2 per cent; San Rafael, 18,701, up 3.9 per cent; Mill Valley, 9,844, up 3.3 per cent; Fairfax, 5,483, up 2.8 per cent; San Anselmo, 11,146, up 2 per cent, and Ross, 2,594, no gain.

In the unincorporated area, said the report, the Terra Linda-Marino area experienced the largest proportionate growth with a gain of 21.3 per cent. Next in order were the Lynwood-Loma Verde-Raphael Village area with 13.2 per cent and Tiburon Peninsula with 10.3.

Novato's population rose this year from 14,721 to 15,246, a gain of 3.6 per cent, the foundation estimated.

The report said percentage of growth in the entire unincorporated area was 6.2 in 1958, with a current estimated population of 74,601, compared with 70,235 on Jan. 1.

Breaking down its estimates by general area, the development foundation reported these population figures:

Northwest Marin, 2,791; Northeast Marin, 20,067; Central Marin, 78,375; Southern Marin, 33,605; and Southwest Marin, 931.

Military personnel residing in bachelor's quarters totaled 4,100 at the year's end, the report said.

Carroll Snyder, manager of the foundation, said the organization's population studies are performed for the purpose of answering many inquiries about area-by-area habitation in Marin County.

"The effort," said Snyder, "is not to arrive at an estimate of the county total, but rather to distribute that total, provided by the state Department of Finance, amongst the various areas in Marin."

"In that form it is used extensively by financial institutions, commercial organizations and governmental agencies in determining loan policies, merchandising plans, location selection and evaluation of the county's business potential."

2 Boys Hurt As Car Skids Off Highway

Two 18-year-old Marin youths escaped with slight injuries when a car driven by one of them skidded off Sir Francis Drake boulevard near Lagunitas and overturned at about 8:15 o'clock last night.

The driver, Douglas Nelson Weld of 156 Bayview avenue, Belvedere, suffered bruises about the face. His passenger, Ronald A. Sandstrom of 15 Sidney street, Mill Valley, suffered a small scalp cut and arm bruises. Both were treated at Marin General Hospital.

The California Highway Patrol reported Weld said the brakes locked and threw the car into a skid as he rounded "Deadman's Curve" west of Lagunitas.

The car clipped a rail of a wooden bridge over Lagunitas Creek and dropped about 15 feet into the creek, landing upside down.

Water Officials See No Threat Of Shortage

Despite the dry spell, Marin is in no immediate danger of a water shortage, officials of the county's two water districts agreed today.

William R. Seeger, general manager of the Marin Municipal Water District, said the district has enough water now in storage in its reservoirs to meet any needs through 1959. With just a reasonable amount of rain during the remainder of the current rain season, he said, there is no prospect of a water shortage unless next year also is a drought year.

IRKED AT DELAYS

Seeger noted that district officials are unhappy over delays which have forced them to give up their plan to build Nicasio Dam in time to impound waters of the 1960-61 rainy season. It is in that period, rather than in 1959, that there may be a water shortage, he said.

Seeger and possibly members of the MMWD board of directors plan to meet with the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors at 8 p.m. Jan. 12 in Santa Rosa to explore the possibility of obtaining water from Coyote Dam in the northern county.

SEEK ANSWERS

Seeger said the discussion is to obtain answers to questions of how much water would be available to the Marin district, whether it would be firmly committed or only available if Sonoma has surplus water, how much it would cost, whether there are any legal obstacles to the arrangement and similar points.

Officials of the North Marin Water District have expressed about the same views as Seeger regarding prospects of a water shortage.

The North Marin district also has sufficient water in storage to get through 1959, they have said, but should next winter also be dry, a shortage would be in prospect.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — Demand for steel, motors and oils helped push the stock market further into record ground late this afternoon. Trading was active.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4,000,000 shares compared with 3,900,000 yesterday.

Key stocks rose fractions to more than a point. An assortment of losers muddled the trend.

Du Pont was ahead more than five as stock split rumors continued. Goodyear was down more than three on profit taking.

Lukens Steel spurted about two and U.S. Steel more than a point. A similar rise was made by Chrysler-Ford was about a point to the good.

Gains of a point or better were made by Standard Oil (New Jersey), Texas Co. and Royal Dutch. Southern Pacific rose a point or so while a string of leading carriers made fractional gains.

Kennecott was up about two. Caterpillar dipped a point.

Two Break-Ins At Mill Valley

Thieves made two successful break-ins in Mill Valley last night, getting away with about $70 in cash from the De Beaux Pontic Co. at 374 Miller avenue and two power saws from a construction shack at new apartments being built for Manuel Gomez near Tamalpais High School.

The intruders apparently made their way into the auto agency by breaking open a rear window and into the construction shack by prying off a lock, police reported.

OBITUARIES

R. F. Baker Dies At 53

R. Frank Baker, widely known in the field of legal publications and a Mill Valley resident since 1940, died unexpectedly Monday at his home at 260 Monte Vista avenue. He was 53.

He was vice president of the San Francisco law book publishing firm of Bancroft-Whitney and had been associated with the firm since 1934. He was a graduate of the Stanford Law School. He was a native of Minnesota.

He is survived by his wife, Hellen, his mother, Mrs. J. Henry Baker, and a daughter, Mrs. Charles Baxter Davis II, all of Mill Valley, a daughter, Mrs. Charles A. Greenwood of Bel Air, and four grandchildren.

Private funeral services were held today at the Russell and Gooch chapel in Mill Valley, with interment in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

Helen D. Lawson, Friend of Marin Labor, Succumbs

Private funeral services for Mrs. Helen D. Lawson, 80, a long-time Sausalito resident, were held today at Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael.

Mrs. Lawson died yesterday after long illness at a local hospital. She had lived many years in Sausalito and for a brief time in a San Rafael apartment with her daughter, Mrs. Katherine Addison. Mrs. Addison, who survives, now lives in Tulelake, Siskiyou County.

Mrs. Lawson for almost a quarter of a century acted as an unofficial friend of organized labor in Marin County. She would stop at the office of the Marin County Central Labor Council to learn what was going on in labor circles and then would pass the information to her friends.

She was a member of John H. Harris Auxiliary 82, United Spanish War Veterans; Woodward Circle 663, Neighbors of Woodcraft, and the Marin Senior Assn.

Vallejo Resident Dies In Marin Of Fall Injuries

Ray H. Bias, 47-year-old Vallejo resident who suffered a basal skull fracture there Monday night in a headlong fall down his apartment stairs, died last night in San Rafael General Hospital.

Death came nearly 24 hours after Bias underwent emergency surgery. He was taken to the local hospital after the mishap in order to obtain the services of a Marin brain specialist, not identified by hospital attendants.

Vallejo police said Bias' fall apparently came after his wife, Marie, 44, fled their apartment when he became abusive and started beating her.

Bias struck his head on a concrete slab after plunging down a flight of stairs leading from the second-story apartment.

He was employed by the A. C. Hannah Co., Vallejo moving firm.

The body is at the Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo, pending removal to Vallejo.

Leilani Withdrawn From Service

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Hawaiian Tecton, Inc., announced today it was withdrawing the S.S. Leilani from passenger service between Hawaii and the West Coast immediately.

The firm said passengers holding reservations have been notified and refunds are being made.

Hawaiian Tecton will continue operating two freighters, the Lanikai and the Kaimana.

John MacConnel Services Friday

Funeral services for John D. MacConnel, father of Mrs. Doris Beacock who formerly resided on Lagunitas road in Ross, will be held at 3 p.m. Friday at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael. Burial will be in Mt. Tamalpais Cemetery.

MacConnel, a retired Los Angeles combustion engineer, died Sunday at the age of 74. His widow, Rena, is flying from Los Angeles and will arrive New Year's Day to stay with relatives in Marin County.

In addition to his wife and daughter, MacConnel is survived by a son, George MacConnel, U.S. Army; three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Marinite's Mother Dies In Oakland

Mrs. Ethel R. Blackburn of Oakland, who has visited here frequently with her daughter, Mrs. Katherine (Lewis A.) Clapp of Kentfield, died today after a heart attack. Although she had been under physician's care for some time because of a heart ailment, she became critically ill only two days ago.

Mrs. Blackburn, who has a son, Lowell Blackburn of San Marino, is also survived by three grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Blackburn had lived in Oakland since 1897 when she arrived as a bride with her husband, the late George Blackburn. She was a 40-year member of the Lakeview Women's Club of Oakland.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Friday at Albert Brown Mortuary in Oakland.

Early-Day River Pilot Succumbs

Capt. Harry Angier Hyde, one of California's early river pilots, died yesterday at the Mill Valley home at 115 Walnut avenue where he had resided for three years with his sister, Mrs. Ethel Hyde Fostine. He was 81.

A native of San Francisco, Captain Hyde was reared in the Bay Area and spent his entire active life on the Sacramento and San Joaquin Rivers as a pilot. He was a lifetime member of the Masters, Mates and Pilots Assn. of San Francisco.

On his retirement, he and his wife moved to Honolulu until her death three years ago.

His sister is his only survivor.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 11 a.m. at the Russell and Gooch chapel in Mill Valley. Interment will be in Mountain View Cemetery, Oakland.

New Year's Is Time To Look Ahead, Not Back

New Year's is not the time for looking back. True, it has long been the time for settling accounts, starting a fresh sheet, and assessing experiences. All of these call for looking back.

Yet at New Year's time we look ahead into the future. That's what we make resolutions for. That's why we have a clean sheet; we expect to fill it up in the next 365 days.

Tomorrow we get that new start. What will it bring? That's the excitement of living; we don't know. But we Americans by nature are an optimistic bunch. We can look an H-bomb right in the eye and believe that we are smart enough never to blow ourselves up. We can shoot for the moon, literally, and a failure is a great success. We can deplore taxes and cost of government, but demand more and more services.

We have absolute faith that there is a fine future ahead for us. We can buy practically anything and pay for it later on. We think nothing of taking on personal liabilities which extend 20 or 30 years into the future. We live to the edge of our incomes, and sometimes slip over the edge a little bit, with perfect confidence.

If we should think deeply about the way most of us live, financially that is, it would scare the daylight out of a person of little faith. But we in America have become so used to the happy ending and our faith has been justified so many times, we can hardly conceive of it letting us down.

We hope the present generation does not get too complacent, however. An older generation can recall vividly a time we reached a low ebb. But even then, in the '30s when jobs were scarce and security fickle, Americans' faith in themselves and their ability to meet any test brought us all through safely.

But New Year's is not the time to look back. There is much to be done in the next 12 months. Cities and the county have many projects to undertake and complete; the state Legislature is facing one of its most difficult sessions; Congress has vital projects before it, the peace of the world could well rest in their hands.

Come to think of it, we've got some pretty important decisions to make ourselves. We're sure you do too.

And we have faith that we'll all make the right decisions in the long run.

Happy New Year!

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

THE HIGH PRICE OF BOREDOM

Weekend boredom is a chief cause of alcoholism among men and women, an Austrian physician claims.

More than a hundred years ago, C. C. Calton echoed the same note when he said: "Boredom has made more gamblers than avarice, more drunkards than thirst and perhaps as many suicides as despair."

Many people show remarkable ability in making efficient use of time during the working week. But when left without all the props of their jobs, they find it difficult to put their leisure hours to either a truly entertaining or useful purpose.

In trying to escape the dreaded boredom that inevitably follows, they resort to all sorts of crutches. A little harmless drinking leaves them still bored and so they continue it beyond the point of no return.

You won't find time to be bored if you put to work some of the imagination and initiative entrusted to you by God. Make even your idle hours count and there will never be a dull moment in your life.

"Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep, and an idle soul shall suffer hunger." (Proverbs 19:15)

Help me, O Lord, to be the master of all that I think, say and do—not the slave.

Advice To Help You Live Till '59: Sell Your Car This Afternoon

NEW YORK (U)—Advice to celebrators:

This is the night of opportunity—the opportunity of living to see New Year's Day dawn.

Many won't make it. But you can. All it takes is a little care and forethought for the next 12 hours or so.

Then careworn old 1958 will be behind you, and you'll be alive and eager—well, alive anyway—to face the challenge of the brave new world of 1959.

Many people honestly want to survive New Year's Eve, but don't know how. Here are a few tips for the careless liver:

Sell your car this afternoon. If you sell it, you can't drive it to a party tonight.

If you can't sell your car, lend it to a neighbor and let him drive it to whatever party he's attending. If someone has to get into an accident, better him than you.

Take an airplane trip to Europe. Statistics prove there are fewer safer places on New Year's Eve than aboard a commercial plane flying over an ocean.

Has your doctor been bothering you for years to have your tonsils or an ulcer cut out? Why not have the operation done tonight? The nurses would rather welcome you as a routine patient than an accident case.

If you are a serious drinker, be proud. Remember, New Year's Eve is for the amateurs. Stick to ginger ale this night. Then you can have the fun of watching the beginners make fools of themselves.

If you are the last to leave the party and are walking home, cross in the middle of the block. In fact, don't cross any street anywhere. Just walk around the block until the sun comes up.

PERSONAL SAFETY suggests you avoid discussing the following topics at a New Year's Eve party: National politics, baseball, football, sex, and such questions as who's the prettiest girl in the room. Topics you can feel free to give your views on include the weather, income taxes, and why hasn't the government done more for the whooping crane?

Some people feel the urge to adventure with weird new drinks at New Year's Eve parties. If this temptation overwhelms you, try vodka and epsom salts. It is non-habit-forming, and you will wake up Thursday with a clear head.

THE BEST THING of all to do is to stay home, toss the cat out at 10 p.m., bolt and lock the doors and windows, take a sleeping pill and go to bed. You are not only safe from all forms of revelry and personal tomfoolery — you can't even be hit by lightning. Happy New Year's Eve. See you Thursday.

Trustees Approve McConnell's Work

Mill Valley School District trustees have expressed their complete approval of the policies and procedures of Supt. G. Robert McConnell as an outgrowth of an executive session which is held semi-annually to evaluate his position.

"The board is in wholehearted agreement," announced Mrs. Martin Rosse, board chairman, "with the work being done by District Superintendent McConnell and his staff."

In addition to evaluating McConnell, Mrs. Rosse said, the trustees in executive session reviewed district accomplishments and needs.

McConnell has a three-year contract signed in July, 1957.

CAPITOL REPORT

Most Legislators See Need For New Taxes

By JAMES C. ANDERSON
SACRAMENTO (UP)—Taxes, water and education.

Those are the three issues members of the legislature expect will give them the most trouble when the 1959 general session convenes Monday.

The United Press International poll of the 120 members of the Assembly and Senate show that a majority believe it will be necessary to levy some new taxes or raise existing taxes in order to offset a large budget deficit.

Most experts in state finance predict the deficit will approach 250 million dollars by July 1, 1960, unless new revenue is found.

A LIKELY SOURCE of new revenue would be a tobacco tax. The UPI poll showed a 6-to-1 sentiment in favor of a tax on tobacco products, very possibly a levy of three cents on each package of cigarettes.

But even a tobacco tax would not be enough to make up the expected deficit — and a majority of the legislators said they believed it would be necessary to increase liquor, beer and horse racing taxes and perhaps raise personal income tax rates and taxes on banks, corporations and franchises.

The state treasury does contain one fund that would go a long way toward balancing the budget. That is the investment fund totaling 150 million dollars of tidelands oil royalties.

BUT LEGISLATORS were divided on the question of using the investment fund to offset the deficit. About half of the more than 70 members who responded to the UPI poll, said they thought the investment fund should be spent to develop water projects, such as the Feather River plan, instead of going into the general treasury.

Water issues, which the legislature has been unable to resolve for the past six years, again will be a major problem.

The UPI poll showed the same old splits — sectional differences between north and south, lack of trust between the Senate and Assembly, arguments between those who want the federal government to build the FRP as opposed to state construction.

BY ALMOST a 4-to-1 margin, the legislators reported they favor some sort of a constitutional amendment setting forth the water rights of North and South. But there was almost no agreement on the terms and conditions of the amendment and a noticeable lack of enthusiasm among senators for any constitutional change which would not be subject to amendment by future legislatures.

The poll revealed Southern California legislators for the most part still oppose granting construction money for the FRP until a constitutional amendment on water rights is approved by both houses. That stand effectively blocked action on water legislation in the last two sessions of the legislature.

EDUCATION ALSO promises to be a headache for the lawmakers.

The state Department of Education and state Board of Education will ask the legislators for about 80 million dollars more to run the public school system for the next fiscal year. The total budget for education will be almost 665 million dollars.

The educators will propose to increase basic state aid to all public schools from elementary through junior college and want to lengthen the school term by five days.

Backing the program will be the California Teachers Association, one of the most influential lobbying groups in state politics.

Legislators said in the UPI poll that finding the necessary money to finance the education program would rank right behind the tax and water issues as a major problem in 1959.

THE NEW Legislature, controlled by Democrats in both houses, undoubtedly will give serious consideration to such legislation as creation of a Fair Employment Practices Commission, abolishing cross-filing and declaring a moratorium on capital punishment, the UPI poll showed.

A majority of legislators said they favor FEPC, would vote to abolish cross-filing but were somewhat lukewarm toward suspending capital punishment. A bill to cut down on the number of death sentences meted out in California squeaked through the Assembly in 1957 but was defeated in the Senate.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Have Faith In Representatives

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

I am glad to see Mr. John A. Gustafson's letter in your Dec. 26 issue. His feelings are representative of a group of patriotic Americans who are pledged to the continuance of our sovereignty and solvency as a nation.

There are a number of books such as Masters of Deceit by J. Edgar Hoover and many periodicals such as the American Mercury magazine and some publications of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States which attempt to expose much of the leftist workings in our country. Reader Gustafson may find some of them helpful in his search for the truth.

In the important elections in our country, the voter finds that by the time the fiasco of caucuses and national committees etc., boils the choice of candidates down to two he can only pick the lesser of the evils.

Our system is a democracy in the strictest sense of the term, but all we can have is faith and hope once our representatives are elected.

10 YEARS AGO

California was scheduled to return to Pacific Standard time at 2 a.m. the following morning, giving an extra hour for sleep or New Year's eve revelry, depending on how one chose to celebrate advent of the New Year.

Harry S. Truman, President of the United States, was unanimously named man of the year by vote of Associated Press newspapers. The farm-boy from Missouri waged a fighting campaign in the 1948 elections and won an upset victory.

by all means," agreed the courteous Miss Godden. The lady thereupon turned up for tea with SIXTEEN other ladies! It developed that the American admirer ran a tour of Europe in which the customers were promised they would meet famous authors and be entertained by them in their homes!

Miss Godden told Roger Smith, of Publishers Weekly, about another "fan" who wrote to ask for her autograph. Miss Godden mailed it, and in due course received another note from the fan which read, "I have analyzed your handwriting. You are deceitful, selfish, and mean."

REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By ROBERT K. NEWCOMB

These Two Dogs Can Say 'Hello' And 'Mama'—Honest, Cross My Heart

The bewhiskered story of the talking dog that answered "roof" when asked to tell a waiting audience what's on top of a house, appeared about to be repeated the other evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Brock of Novato.

The Brocks have two fine, healthy beagle canines, Penny and Buck, both of whom enjoy dog biscuits, just like other dogs. But unlike any other dogs we know of, they also talk.

In fact, they speak English — two words each: "Hello" and "Mama."

To prove it, their master bribed them with a dog biscuit. The results were edifying. "Hello" (well, almost, anyway) said Penny. "Mama" said Buck (well, sort of).

It was a matter of mutual agreement Brock says. "One day I figured I had taught them every trick in the book except how to talk. I asked Penny to say 'Mama' and she surprised me by repeating it right then and there."

REV. RICHARD SHACKELL, minister of Novato's St. Francis Episcopal Church made a lasting impression on his congregation at midnight services Christmas Eve.

His sermon, entitled "The Many Masks of Christmas," will not soon be forgotten. The reverend delivered most of it while wearing a black mask.

THE LAST meeting of the Novato School District's board of trustees provided the backdrop for an unusual, if not unique, experience.

The board had invited two architects to the meeting to discuss the subject of a possible master plan of landscaping for the district's elementary schools. Architects Robert Royston of Mill Valley and Ernest Wertheim of San Francisco found themselves facing each other at the meeting and answering questions by trustees, including that of fees.

"This is the first time I have ever sat down at the same table with another architect," Royston observed. "Same here," admitted Wertheim.

IT DOESN'T APPEAR, from here at least, that Novato's oldest part of town, East Grant Avenue, is going to give up and die.

The community's main business artery in past years has grown mainly westward from Redwood Highway. Developments recently, however, point to a possible reverse trend. A new supermarket leads a growing parade of new businesses developing there, including a square-dance shop, a reducing studio, a contemporary furniture store and new offices for the Novato Chamber of Commerce.

Recent announcement that the old Grant Avenue School will soon be replaced, by a commercial building seems to enforce the theory that East Grant is here to stay.

WALTER LIPPMANN

Rules On Filibusters Should Be Considered In Light Of Constitution

Presumably, the first business before the 86th Congress which opens on Jan. 7 will be the question of amending the rules to prevent filibusters. Under the existing rules, which were adopted in 1949, debate can be ended by what is called cloture only when two-thirds of the entire Senate — or at least 66 Senators — vote in favor of it.

There is one exception. If the question is on amending the rules of the Senate, there can be no cloture.

Probably not more than 20 Senators in the new Congress will want to keep Rule XXII exactly as it is. A great and overwhelming majority will support amendments. But they differ on how far they want to go.

THERE ARE TWO main choices. The one is supported by Sen. Lyndon Johnson proposal debate can be ended by two-thirds of the Senators present and voting. In theory, this could mean that cloture might be applied by as few as 34 Senators, that is to say two-thirds of a quorum which is 50 Senators.

The proposal of Sen. Douglas, which has the support of men like Javits, Keating, Humphrey, and Case, also provides that within two days of the filing of a cloture petition debate can only be closed by a two-thirds vote of those present. But if debate continues for as long as 15 days, cloture can then be voted by a simple majority of the whole Senate, or 50 affirmative votes.

THE REAL ISSUE at the bottom of this complicated argument is, I believe, a constitutional question. It is not what the letter of the constitution says.

The question is how big a majority must there be in order to overrule the opposition of a determined minority. Having read carefully the material being circulated by Sen. Douglas, I have come to think that he has not dealt with the real issue. The real issue is not whether measures shall be fully debated. The question is how they can be passed. The real question is what are you to do with a minority which is not open to being converted by a debate. Under what conditions should you over-ride it?

IN MY MIND, the proposal to decide highly controversial questions by a vote of no more than one plus one-half of the Senate is not good enough. While the constitution itself says nothing about the question, it is a fact that the constitution is by no means devoted to the principle that a simple majority should rule. Treaties and impeachments require two-thirds of those present and voting. Constitutional amendments, the expulsion of members, the over-riding of the President's veto, require two-thirds of all the Senators elected.

What is the reason for these exceptions to simple majority rule? Is it not that what is at stake is of such great moment that it should have the concurrence of more than half of the representatives of the states?

WHY SHOULD IT have this concurrence? Because when controversial matters are decided by a too-narrow majority, the prospect of resistance and nullification is increased. To enforce difficult laws, there should be a large majority which concurs in them.

The issue of the rules is a hot one because the filibuster is a principal instrument of obstruction against federal legislation on behalf of the civil rights of Negroes. The substantial question is whether the indisputable rights of Negroes can be achieved and maintained by simple majority which over-rides the South, or whether progress depends on winning the assent of the rapidly growing enlightened opinion in the South.

'58 Was Year Of Controversy On Marin County News Scene

Top Stories: Politics, Rain, Property Values, A Dam

every turn. His only board ally was Supervisor William D. Fusselman.

The county courthouse was the setting for a tense drama one day in January when, by order of the supervisors, Hall's Addressograph machines were hauled out of his office by a moving firm.

It was a bitterly fought showdown on the board's insistence that Hall not only use the new figures, but also process them with International Business Machine equipment instead of Addressographs.

The nimble — and frantic — assessor managed to salvage his Addressograph plates, which contained the old appraisal figures. Acting quickly, he locked them in their heavy cabinets, tossed the key in his safe and twirled the combination lock. A superior court ruling later prevented removal of the plates from his office.

Hall also was under harassment from another source — the Marin County Grand Jury. Climax to the grand jury's searching probe of his office came in March, when a jury report charged he administered it poorly and let taxes escape by failure to assess certain property.

The beleaguered assessor said he was "gratified" the jurors found no evidence of criminal corruption.

Another thorn in Hall's side was H. B. Granlee, San Rafael real estate man, who filed an affidavit accusing the assessor of permitting a million dollars' worth of property to escape taxation in 1957-58. On the basis of the affidavit, the supervisors were required to file suit for recovery of county taxes allegedly lost through Hall's willful neglect of duty. The case is still pending.

Hall promptly retaliated with a $350,000 libel suit charging that Granlee and 10 others, none identified, made malicious statements about his failure to collect possessory interest (leasehold) taxes. This case, too, has yet to be tried.

After his stunning defeat at the polls in June, Hall hurled "political interference" charges at the state Board of Equalization.

"You asked for it, George, and you got it!" retorted board member Paul R. Leake.

The November general election gave Marin County a new sheriff, Police Chief Louis P. Mountanos of Sausalito; a new superintendent of schools, Virgil S. Hollis of Tiburon, and a new representative in Congress, Democrat Clement W. Miller of Corte Madera. Miller failed to gain a majority in the Marin balloting, but was elected on the strength of returns from the balance of the seven-county 1st Congressional District.

Assemblyman Richard H. McColister, San Rafael Republican, was re-elected without opposition, and voters of the 5th (North Marin) Supervisorial District gave Supervisor William A. Gnos a second four-year term.

The much-touted Marin County Charter, drafted by a 15-member elected board of freeholders, was overwhelmingly rejected by the voters. Among other things, the charter would have given Marin a strong county manager form of government and a seven-member board of supervisors.

Charter opponents said it would create an over-centralized government headed by a virtual czar. Supporters of the document urged voters to trade in "horse and buggy" government for a "new model."

Marin voters, most of whom had just received county tax bills in the mail, also were in an economy-minded mood. Down to defeat went proposed bond measures for (1) improvement of the county hospital-juvenile hall in Lucas Valley, (2) a local contribution toward expansion of Marin General Hospital, and (3) a county airport at Pt. San Quentin.

Narrowly defeated was a proposed 65-cent tax rate ceiling increase for Tamalpais Union High School District — from $1.25 to $1.90.

In San Anselmo, however, two money proposals managed to win approval. Voters there authorized retirement system benefits for city employees and approved a 10-cent San Anselmo School District tax limit hike — from $1.35 to $1.45.

The Nov. 4 rain of votes (53,182 of 62,107 eligible voters cast ballots) produced a number of top news stories, but not as many as the monotonous rain of real raindrops during the first four months of 1958.

Storm after storm hit Marin County with increasing fury. Invariably accompanied by gale force winds, they left in their wake widespread flooding, earth slides, fallen trees, mud-filled streets, power blackouts and slipping houses.

The worst storm on April 2 also brought tragedy. Richard James Chase, 37-year-old temporary employee of the Fairfax Street Department and father of six, drowned in storm-swollen Manor Creek after losing his footing on a concrete catwalk.

On that same day, the lower end of San Anselmo's Forest avenue fell into Corte Madera Creek, reducing the street to a crazy arrangement of asphalt and mud chunks and forcing a number of families to flee their homes. Two days later, San Anselmo was declared in a state of emergency. Slides also wrenched homes in Fairfax and San Rafael off their foundations.

The Independent-Journal's weather forecast on April 2 announced simply: "More of the same." In 96 hours, 8.1 inches of rain fell in Kent Woodlands, while San Rafael had 3.35 inches in a single downpour.

It was a March storm of almost equal intensity that caused the trouble at Justice Carter's Sleepy Hollow reservoir. Down the hill below his property went a cascade of water and fish. Carter paid for the damage to houses and lands of his alarmed neighbors. But he twice threatened unplay when county forces tried to drain the reservoir to what they deemed a safe level.

The reservoir incident precipitated a bitter months-long controversy between Carter and the board of supervisors, district attorney's office and department of public works. There were court suits, many of them, and even a grand jury investigation.

A county suit to abate the reservoir as a public nuisance finally was dismissed in an atmosphere of sweetness and light. The dismissal came after four engineers testified Carter's earth dam had undergone extensive repairs and no longer was a hazard to life or property.

These were Marin's top stories of the year. Now let's look back chronologically and see what other events made the headlines in 1958:

JANUARY

Dr. Wallace W. Hall, Marin County superintendent of schools for eight years, resigned to accept appointment Feb. 1 as associate state superintendent of public instruction and chief of the state Division of Public School Administration. Richard L. Foster, one of Hall's assistants, was appointed to serve out the unexpired term.

Novato voters overwhelmingly rejected a proposed $900,000 flood control bond issue.

FEBRUARY

Novato residents were in an uproar over twin sonic booms that blasted their community as the Air Force demonstrated its supersonic F104 Starfighter at Hamilton Air Force Base. Twenty-three claims for damage (mostly broken windows) later were filed with the Air Force.

A one-year 85-cent tax increase—from 90 cents to $1.75—was approved by voters of the financially beleaguered and dissension-ridden Lagunitas School District. The favorable margin was a scant 15 votes.

MARCH

Lt. Col. Raymond E. Evans, commander of the 83rd Fighter-Interceptor Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base, was killed when his jet Starfighter plunged into San Pablo Bay south of the Hamilton runway. The Marin base lost a second jet plane 10 days later when an F89 Scorpion crashed in San Pablo Bay, killing 2nd Lt. Robert E. Dougherty, pilot, and 1st Lt. Andrew F. Loiacono, radar observer, both of the 84th Fighter-Interceptor Squadron.

Marin's long-standing problem of where to dump garbage and trash appeared solved for the time being when the board of supervisors granted Smith Brothers a use permit for a 600-acre fill-and-cover dump at Burdell in North Marin.

John R. Kiker of Novato, describing himself as "criminologist and taxpayer," caused a brief sensation by urging North Marin residents to secede from Marin County and form a "City and County of Pacheco."

Architect Frank Lloyd Wright unveiled his preliminary drawings of the future Marin County Civic Center and predicted the multi-million-dollar project, when completed, would be "a cornerstone in the culture of the nation."

APRIL

April 8 was a great day for distaff candidates as three out of four women aspirants for city council positions were victorious in Marin's municipal elections. The winners were Mrs. Marjorie Brady in Sausalito, Mrs. Ida Scott in Belvedere and Mrs. Carmel H. Booth in San Anselmo. For Mrs. Booth, a council veteran who had resigned in 1957, it was an impressive comeback victory.

Other winners of council seats were H. Nordmark Williams, Belvedere; Edward W. Colthurst, Robert Scoville and William R. Hansen, Corte Madera; William L. Hughes, Rolfe M. Ockenden and Kenneth M. Edgar, Fairfax; Paul W. Cane and Harold H. (Steve) Wheeler, Larkspur; Robert D. Huber and Joseph E. Sheeks, Mill Valley; John Witter and James McNab, Ross; William Franchini and Carleton G. E. Little, San Anselmo; and George E. Keeney, Sausalito.

Arson was suspected, but never proved, in the gutting of San Rafael's Hollywood Studio Furniture Store by a $45,000 fire. The store did not reopen.

Turncoat soldier LaRance V. Sullivan, 27, took up residence in Marin City on his return from Communist China, his "home" for five years after refusing repatriation when released from a prison camp at the end of the Korean War.

The board of supervisors approved Frank Lloyd Wright's preliminary plans for the first two construction stages of the county civic center project. Only dissenting voice was that of Supervisor William D. Fusselman, who said "a thing of this magnitude" should be submitted to a vote of the people. Nothing came of a movement by the Marin County Taxpayers Assn. to force such an election.

MAY

Dixie School District trustees decided not to re-hire Edward L. Hanchett, seventh grade teacher who invoked the Fifth Amendment at a 1957 congressional committee hearing on alleged subversion in American schools. Hanchett later was hired by San Jose School District in North Marin.

A 37-year-old Novato father of two set the world altitude record for flight in a powered aircraft when he nosed a jet-powered F104 Starfighter to an altitude of 91,249 feet above the Mojave Desert. The record holder is Maj. Howard C. Johnson of the 83rd Fighter-Interceptor Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Later in the month another Hamilton pilot, Capt. Walter Wayne Irwin of Novato, flew a Starfighter at a world record speed of 1,404.19 miles per hour over a measured course above Edwards Air Force Base. A Novato resident, he is the father of three.

At 1:25 p. m. on May 9, Edwin Norbert Hart, 54, was found bludgeoned to death behind the counter of his liquor store at 1605 Fourth street, San Rafael police have yet to solve the baffling crime, for which no motive has been uncovered. Nothing appeared to be missing from the store.

Turning out in large numbers, voters rejected proposed tax increases in the Fairfax, San Anselmo, Tamalpais Union High School and Novato Unified school districts; approved them for the Mill Valley, Reed and San Quentin districts; retained existing tax limits in the Bolinas and Sausalito districts; defeated Mill Valley and Lagunitas district bond issues, and rejected state loan proposals in the Lagunitas and Kentfield districts.

Elizabeth Manning Deedy of Ross was elected to the Marin Junior College District board and Mrs. Ada M. Fusselman of San Anselmo, veteran board member, was re-elected.

JUNE

Fire gutted a 44-year-old commercial building on the north side of Novato's Grant avenue, east of Highway 101. The building housed four business establishments. Forty regular and volunteer firemen battled more than two hours to bring the spectacular blaze under control.

Two masked gunmen, waving a sawed-off shotgun and a revolver, herded eight employees of Sabella's restaurant at Alto into a refrigerated room and vanished with about $9,000 in cash and checks.

San Jose School District voters, at a special election, overwhelmingly approved a 49-cent hike in the district's tax ceiling—from 90 cents to $1.39.

Establishment of a 28,000-acre federal recreation area on Pt. Reyes Peninsula was proposed in a National Park Service report prepared by George L. Collins of San Anselmo. West Marin dairymen promptly denounced the proposal as a threat to the dairy industry. Three months later the board of supervisors voted 4-1 to support the dairymen in their opposition. Supervisor Vera Schultz dissented.

JULY

With a snip of the scissors, Mayor William R. Hansen of Corte Madera cut a festive ribbon at a ceremony marking the official opening of the multi-million-dollar Corte Madera Shopping Center on Highway 101.

Henderson McCoy, described as an "extremely dangerous" San Quentin prisoner, walked away from a work detail outside the prison gates, terrorized a housewife and her 8-year-old daughter with a kitchen knife and made good his escape after stealing the family's Cadillac.

AUGUST

Working smoothly, a lone robber held up the Bank of America's Fairfax branch and escaped with $910. Captured in December after holding up a Calistoga bank, Robert F. Gladu, 51-year-old janitor at the Marin County Farm and Hospital admitted the Fairfax holdup, which was Marin's first bank robbery since 1932. In that year the same bank, then a branch of the Bank of Italy, was the target.

Novato Unified School District voters, who had rejected a tax boost in May, narrowly approved a tax ceiling increase to $3.23 for a three-year period. With only three directors present, the Marin Municipal Water District board voted 2-1 to approve "in principle" the revised plan of promoter Charles Van Evera for an aerial tramway to the top of Mt. Tamalpais.

Water district directors also voted 3-0 to remain neutral on the controversial subject of fluoridating the district's water supply. Effect of the decision was to kill the proposal unless advocates succeed in an initiative to place it on the ballot for public vote.

Dr. Theodore A. Gill, 38, managing editor of the Christian Century, was named president of San Francisco Theological Seminary by trustees of the Presbyterian institution in San Anselmo.

Tragedy struck two Marin families when a San Rafael salesman and a father and son from Santa Venetia perished in the crash of a private plane into San Francisco Bay near Pt. San Quentin. Killed were G. Gunnar Abramson, 40, of San Rafael; Leonard H. Reeves, 37, of Santa Venetia; Reeves' son, Ronald, 14, and 45-year-old George P. Yates of Oakland.

The Marin County Board of Supervisors adopted a record county budget of $10,135,556, but the county's basic tax rate remained at $2.30 per $100 assessed valuation.

SEPTEMBER

Twelve of the 15 members of the county board of freeholders signed the ill-fated county charter which they were ready to submit to vote after spending nearly 11 months drafting. Capt. A. S. O'Ko, William T. Bagley and Sylvester J. McAtee refused to sign.

The 710-foot-long Black Point Bridge over Petaluma Creek on Highway 37 opened to traffic. The span took 18 months to build.

WORST STORM DAMAGE — Greatest damage by rains that drenched Marin throughout the first four months of 1958 was the Forest avenue slide in San Anselmo and Fairfax. This is the Fairfax end of Forest avenue after the slide (the San An-selmo end was worse). Only temporary repairs were made in San Anselmo, as by the time state aid funds for rebuilding the road had been secured, it was so late in the year that contractors refused to bid on the project, in fear of rains that didn't come. (Independent-Journal photo) at first, but official reports from Formosa confirmed that jet Starfighters of the 83rd Fighter-Interceptor Squadron had arrived there to strengthen U.S. forces at the height of the Quemoy crisis. The 83rd's pilots and ground crewmen returned in December from the war that didn't happen.

OCTOBER

A $200,000 pre-dawn fire gutted Bellach's Furniture Co. on Francisco boulevard in San Rafael. Only the concrete walls remained standing.

California Development Co., headed by James H. Scheuer, was chosen to undertake redevelopment of Marin City.

A flying instructor and two student pilots were killed when two seaplanes plunged into Richardson Bay after a mid-air collision. The victims were Eric Raison, 27, of Mill Valley, the instructor, and Douglas C. Gladstone, 27, and Morgan J. Erick Jr., 23, both of San Francisco.

Bart Luis Carlativo, 52, died in San Quentin Prison's gas chamber for the 1954 hammer and knife slaying of a Stinson Beach couple, Joseph and Camille Banks.

Gerold E. Baucum, 29, one of three prisoners who stole an airplane in their 1956 escape from a San Quentin honor camp in Siskiyou County, returned voluntarily to the prison to serve out his sentence.

Despite a neighbor's rescue effort, Nora Emma Kennedy, 60-year-old pensioner and former Olympic swimming star, perished in a fire that destroyed her tiny cottage in a wooded section of Fairfax.

NOVEMBER

The Redwood, Northwestern Pacific Railroad's San Rafael to Eureka passenger train, made its final trip. The run discontinued because of declining revenues and increasing operating costs.

William Francis Rupp, slayer of a 15-year-old baby sitter in Orange County in 1952, was executed in the San Quentin gas chamber after spending nearly six years in a Death Row cell while his case was being appealed.

The board of supervisors declared war on skunks, raccoons and foxes, offering a $1 bounty for the tail of each freshly killed ed animal. The experimental program later was dropped after over-eager bounty seekers damaged property on several Marin ranches and took potshots at non-bounty targets such as cows and domestic cats.

Fires destroyed two Marin landmarks, the 85-year-old former Mailliard family residence in Woodacre, used by the Woodacre Improvement Club for the past 10 years, and the historic one-room Burdell School in North Marin.

Corte Madera voters rejected an $850,000 sewer bond issue proposed by Corte Madera Sanitary District.

DECEMBER

Marin school children are not getting enough fundamental education in comparison with athletics and social events and are being promoted from grade to grade almost automatically, the Marin County Grand Jury declared in its final report.

The grand jury also returned indictments against George T. Davis, San Francisco attorney; Joseph Longstreth, Indiana literary agent, and Prentice-Hall Publishing Co. for alleged conspiracy to smuggle a manuscript by condemned convict-author Caryl Chessman out of San Quentin Prison.

Frank B. Shouse, 69, of Vallejo, was burned to death in Tiburon by a mystery fire that engulfed his car.

Residents of Marin and the Bay Area were jolted by a moderately severe earthquake, but no damage was reported in the county.

A long and increasingly serious drought came to an end with the arrival of welcome rainstorms late in the month.

Prince Sam Davis, 34-year-old Marin City garbage man, shot and killed his common-law wife, Viola Baker, about 32, at the height of a violent Christmas Eve argument in the apartment they shared.

Meadowsweet Group Hits Rezoning Proposal

Proposed rezoning of 3.45 acres of property in the Meadowsweet area south of Corte Madera to multi-residential use has drawn sharp fire from the Meadowsweet Improvement Assn.

The association today presented a four-page brief to the Marin County Board of Supervisors decrying the proposed rezoning of the Balzarini-Moats property on the Highway 101 frontage road in county territory below Meadowsweet drive. Members of the group, along with advocates of the rezoning are to appear at an 8 p.m. public hearing on Tuesday before the supervisors at the court house.

Mrs. W. W. Nichols, member of an association committee fighting the rezoning, said 33 signatures have been obtained endorsing the brief.

She said she hopes a decision will be made Tuesday. In part, the brief states:

"As individual property owners we purchased our land in this area on the basis that the zoning had been established as a single residence area in a Green Belt, recognized as such both by the county and the Town of Corte Madera."

"The present proposal would put not less than 156 new residents here. But this would not be all. The adjacent and nearby areas are bound to be classified under the same provisions set up for the 3.45 acres. If 52 rental units for 3.45 acres, the whole area fronting the access road can be classified for similar multiple housing with a potential increase of 400 to 800 people."

"Therefore we respectfully ask the board to reject the present master plan for the Balzarini-Moats acreage and require that a new master plan be submitted based on single residential requirements."

Iowa 18½ Points Better Than Cal? Oddsmakers Say So

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Iowa and California, two of the 1958 collegiate gridiron giants, clash in the Rose Bowl tomorrow—with the Hawkeyes from the Big Ten Conference rated as 18½ point favorites to smash the Pacific Coast Conference representative again.

Both coaches announced tentative starting lineups and the "hay was in the barn" as far as training, conditioning and practice was concerned.

"We're as ready as we can get," said Coach Pete Elliott of the underdog Golden Bears. "We expect to give them a battle—but I won't come out and predict a victory."

His players, however, were more optimistic. They were hollering and singing as they finished their final workout—and the general opinion was that "We didn't come here to get beat."

Coach Forest Evashevski of Iowa was "gloomy after the Hawkeyes' final workout. "It wasn't good," he said.

However, the thousands of Iowa rooters who have flocked into the area aren't worried.

Kick-off time is 2 p.m. and more than 100,000 will jam the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. Weather forecast is fair and warm with the temperature expected to be in the 70s.

The probable lineups were no surprise. Both coaches used just about the same men they have had in action all season.

"But my lineup is subject to a late revision," said Elliott as he announced his starters.

The Big Ten has won 11 of the 12 bowl engagements since the two conferences engaged in the pact "to protect football." The 1960 game will be the last under the present contract—although there is some hope that another agreement may be made between the Big Ten and West Coast schools.

The battle shapes up as a starring vehicle for one of two men: Quarterback Randy Duncan, the passing genius of the Hawkeyes; and quarterback Joe Kapp, the pass-run option artist for the Golden Bears.

The odds-makers believe that the speedy Iowa secondary will be too tough for California. There the Hawkeyes have such men as Bob Jeter, Willie Fleming, Jon Nocera and Don Horn, and these men travel fast on both offense and defense.

However, California's backs aren't exactly slow-pokes. Kapp is one of the larger quarterbacks in the country at 6-2 and 205 pounds. And he has good speed. The halfbacks and fullbacks are above average in the speed department. Elliott has named Kapp, halfbacks Hank Olguin and Jack Hart and fullback Billy Patton as starters. None of these is slow. Additionally, available are such speedsters as Grover Garvin of San Rafael, Walt Arnold and Jack Yerman, the latter a star track man.

Evashevski's starting backfield has Duncan at quarter; Jeter and Fleming, halves, and Nocera fullback.

The Iowa line has Jeff Langston and Don Norton at ends; John Burroughs and Mac Lewis, tackles; Hugh Drake and Gary Grouwinkler, guards, and Bill Lapham, center.

For California, the starting line, which will be outweighed about 25 pounds to the man, will be ends Jerry Lundgren and Tom Bates; tackles Pat Newell and Frank Sally; guards Pete Domoto and Don Piestrup, and center Terry Jones.

ROSE BOWL GAME IN THEIR ATTIC — Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson stand on the "back porch" of their home in Pasadena and look over the field where California and Iowa will meet in the Rose Bowl game tomorrow. Anderson is foreman of the big bowl's caretaking staff and he and his wife live in a small apartment under the west grandstand. They like to say the famed bowl is played in their "attic." Anderson has seen every Rose Bowl game since 1932. (AP Wirephoto)

LANE FAVORED OVER ORTIZ IN TV FIGHT

MIAMI, la. (UP)—With the possibility of a shot at the lightweight title prize, Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., and Carlos Ortiz of New York meet in a scheduled 10-round bout tonight.

The fight will be televised nationally over the ABC network starting at 7 p.m. (PST).

Lane, rated a 7-5 favorite, fought here five times, and never lost. It will be Ortiz' first appearance in the Miami area.

Neither man is rated a heavy puncher, any edge in that department going to Ortiz.

Lane is rated the No. 1 lightweight contender by Ring Magazine, while Ortiz is given that spot by the National Boxing Assn., so tonight's battle between the two skilled little men should settle that issue.

Lane already has had one shot at Joe Brown's title. He lost a decision to Brown in the champion's most recent title defense last July 25.

Mission Beats Redwood '5'

By GLENN BECKER

The Redwood Giants went cold in the second half yesterday and lost an inter-league basketball game to Mission High, 31-21.

The game, played at Kezar Pavilion, saw Redwood hold its own in the first two periods, as the teams went to the dressing rooms tied at 12-12, thanks to the fine rebounding of Redwood's Jeff Skinner and sophomore center Rich Brear. Then Mission opened the third period with seven straight points to pull away.

The city leaguers then coasted in from there as Redwood, suffering horrible luck on shots from the floor, could sink but two field goals in the final half.

The Giants' top scorers were Rick Reide with 7 points, and Brear with 6.

Mission's top man was Curtis Green with 10.

Coach Dick Hart's "R-Men," improving every day, tackled Marin Catholic today at Marin and return home Friday night to entertain Novato.

Tam Indians Rout Ft. Baker, 56 to 35

Conrad Hoetger pumped 14 points through the mesh and Charley Fisher and Bill Buffaloe each contributed 12 as the Tamalpais Indians routed Ft. Baker, 56-35 yesterday in a practice basketball game at Tam.

Unique 'Golf' Duel At Mill Valley; Some Get-Well Grid Predictions

Ready to hear of another chapter in the trials and tribulations of Marin's bare-footed place kicker?

Well, if you're not doing anything Saturday afternoon, drop down to the Mill Valley Golf Course to see what amounts to one of the most unique competitive duels in the history of sports.

Gordon Tovani, the salesman from Kentfield who gets a boot out of kicking footballs barefooted, will challenge Mill Valley golf pro Malcolm Brown to a "golf" match.

Tovani will kick a football around the golf course and Brownie will hit a golf ball in the prescribed manner.

Since it is quite impossible to stuff a football into a golf hole, some PGA rules have been waived for this duel. Gordy Sore-Toe merely has to hit the green to "hole out" each hole, but Brownie will have to sink the pill in the cup.

Tovani thinks he can beat Brownie on the short, but tricky course. He expects to get a 4 on the first hole, although it measures some 250 yards.

"I might get a birdie on the second hole because it's a downhill job and I'll get a lot of roll," explained Tovani.

He sees a couple of bogeys and possibly double-bogeys on some of the longer holes, but overall he feels he can come close to par 33 on the nine-hole match. He even hopes to get a "hole in one" on the short, downhill 135-yard 8th hole. "If I get the right kind of bounce I may ace that hole," he beamed.

Tovani has been known to boot the pigskin as far as 75 yards. His big toe provides the power, the next two digits serve as guides for accuracy.

Bar owners in San Rafael have put up prizes. Dante Paragelio and Ray Amonini of the Brick Lodge and Johnny Man-

Mrs. Vanucci Tops Marin Golf Play

Mrs. Robert Vanucci's card of 110-36-74 won low net honors yesterday in the Marin Golf Club's women's sweepstakes tournament.

Other leaders:

Class A—Mrs. Fred Ahnert, 100-22-78; Mrs. Jack Hatchett, 103-18-85.

Class B—Mrs. George Richardson, 128-35-93; Mrs. Albert Wilson, 132-36-96.

gini of The Cellars have put up champagne for the winner and beer for the loser.

Public is invited to witness the match. They'll tee and kick-off at 1 p.m.

Betting has picked up on the match. Tovani's close friends are plunking their cabbage on Gordy's big toe, but the odds are strictly in favor of Brown.

YOU SAY your wife spent your Christmas bonus on a new hat?

And your kids need new shoes?

And the boss just handed you a Dear John letter and heck, your name isn't John.

And your bookie threatens to TELL ALL.

And the phone and gas is about to be turned off and the grocer says come up with something besides your elbows.

Is that what's troubling you, Bunkie?

Well, pull up your loan book and we'll help you get well again with these can't miss New Year's Day football predictions. Get a hunch and bet a hunch.

Rose Bowl: Iowa 27, California 16.

Sugar Bowl: LSU 28, Clemson 6.

Orange Bowl: Oklahoma 20, Syracuse 8.

Cotton Bowl: Texas Christian 14, Air Force Academy 8.

Then there's the Bowl Bowl up in Walla Walla, Wash., but we'll save that one for tomorrow—when we're all seeing double.

IF YOUR eyes are clear enough to watch the Rose Bowl game tomorrow, keep a look-out for the numbers 15, 21 and 44 on the California roster, for they belong to Marin County boys.

No. 15 is halfback Grover Garvin of San Rafael, 21 is Sausalito's Ken Meade and 44 is Mill Valley's Dave George. Of the three, Garvin is most likely to see most action.

BIG DAY ON TV

Lop-Sided Bowl Tilts Expected

By U.P.-INTERNATIONAL

More than 300,000 fans on five different football fronts will take themselves out to the old "bowl" game tomorrow despite a pointed warning from odds-makers that most of the contests should wind up in one-sided fashion.

Nearly 100,000, the biggest crowd of the day, is expected at Pasadena, where Iowa is a whopping 18-point choice to trounce California in the Rose Bowl.

Randy Duncan, All-America quarterback, heads a Hawkeye team which compiled a 7-1-1 record this season while his opposite number is Joe Kapp, who directed the Golden Bears to a 7-3 campaign. Generally regarded the "Grand-Daddy" of all New Year's day classics, the Rose Bowl game will be aired by NBC-TV and radio starting at 1:45 p.m. (PST).

Top-ranked Louisiana State, which was the only major unbeaten team in the country with a 10-0 slate, is a top-heavy 15-point favorite over Clemson in the Sugar Bowl tussle at New Orleans, where a crowd of 80,000 is anticipated.

'PLAYER OF YEAR'

Louisiana's tricky Winger "T" attack is headed by Billy Cannon, the UPI's "Player of the Year." John Robinson and quarterback Warren Rabb, Clemson, which uses an unbalanced "T" formation and compiled an 8-2 record this season, relies heavily on Harvey White for its ground gaining. The game will be carried on NBC-TV and radio, beginning at 10:45 a.m. (PST).

The men who make the odds claim the Orange Bowl game at Miami, Fla., should be one-sided too, with Oklahoma (9-1) a 13-point choice over Syracuse (8-1). Syracuse Coach Ben Schwartzwalder summed up the Sooners perfectly.

"Oklahoma does things so well," he said. "And they do them so fast. And so many people do it."

CBS will carry the game on TV and radio at 10:45 a.m. (PST).

TCU FAVORED

Texas Christian and the U.S. Air Force Academy were expected to participate in the closest game of the day at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, Tex. Texas Christian (8-2) is "only" an eight-point favorite over the Air Force (9-0-1) although a recent snow could make the field soggy and throw the quoted odds out of kilter.

A crowd of 75,000 can look for a duel between speedy Jack Spikes of TCU and hard-charging Steve Gallos of the Air Force. Those who can't make it to Dallas tomorrow can catch the game on CBS-TV or radio at approximately 12:30 p.m. (PST).

Prairie View A & M meets Langston (Okla.) in the Prairie View Bowl at Houston, Tex. Prairie View A & M (7-2) is the choice over Langston (4-3) in a game that probably will attract 6,000 fans.

Wyoming and Hardin Simmons, a pair of Southwestern football powers, get in their "bowling" a bit earlier when they meet today in the 24th annual Sun Bowl game at El Paso, Tex. The game should draw 13,000, and Wyoming is a one touchdown favorite over Coach Sammy Baugh's Hardin Simmons' Cowboys.

Pro Career Still Far Off For U.S. Net Hero

BRISBANE, Australia (UP)—Alex Olmedo, the key man in the United States' amazing snatch of the Davis Cup, isn't turning professional—yet.

The 22-year-old Peruvian could hardly talk after he licked Ashley Cooper.

"This is the greatest thrill of my life," he blurted.

After a while he calmed down and in response to questioners said he had no immediate plans to turn professional.

"Keep Kramer away from him," called out Perry Jones, the 70-year-old American captain. "Don't let that man in here."

Jones was joking, of course. He was referring to the fact that rumors are circulating that Kramer has his money eye on Olmedo.

Who should walk right in but Kramer, who is Jones' assistant and can take a great deal of credit for the U.S. triumph.

"I wouldn't touch this boy until he finishes his education," commented Kramer.

Said Olmedo: "Jack is a very good friend of mine and naturally I have thought of a possible professional career, but the time for that is fairly far away."

Alex said he will stay here for the Australian championships which end Jan. 28, then head back to the University of Southern California for his senior year. He is scheduled for graduation in Feb. 1960.

"I'll be very busy with that and my work at the Peruvian Consulate," he added. "Besides, before I turn professional, I would like to win a major championship such as Wimbledon or the U.S. title at Forest Hills."

Olmedo said he would like to return to Peru for a visit (he hasn't been there in five years), but that he doesn't know when he will be able to swing it.

"Mr. Jones said he would take the entire Davis Cup team to Peru with me," he said with a twinkle in his eye. "But I think he might not be serious."

Alex is amazed over reports that he has become a national idol in his country. He is a modest lad.

"They ran me out of Peru," he laughed, "and now they want me back."

He has received scores of cables from all over the U.S. and Peru.

One of them, from President Manuel Prado, said: "Congratulations. All Peru is happy."

Another of his most prized wires is from movie star Kirk Douglas, with whom he plays socially.

It read: "Congratulations. Your victory makes you more than a chief."

Alex' nickname is "Chief" because of his Inca Indian heritage.

Meanwhile, Captain Jones was holding court in another part of the American dressing room.

"I said it once and I will say it again," bubbled Jones. "Here is the greatest amateur tennis player in the world."

It was Jones who persuaded the U.S. cup brass to put Olmedo on the team. Jones has been bringing Alex along since he arrived in Southern California just like he helped Kramer and Ted Schroeder more than a decade ago.

Olmedo Leads Yanks To Tremendous 'Davis' Upset

BRISBANE, Australia (UPI) — Alex (The Chief) Olmedo, a Peruvian on lend-lease to the United States Davis Cup team, whipped Australia's tennis monopolists almost single-handedly and the Yanks reclaimed the famed mug today by winning the challenge round, three matches to two.

Olmedo clinched the best-of-five series for the U.S. by outclassing Ashley Cooper, 6-3, 4-6, 6-4, 8-6. Then, with the Cup already in American hands, more than 18,000 groaning fans watched Mal Anderson turn back Barry Mackay of Dayton, Ohio, 7-5, 13-11, 11-9 in a "who cares" final match.

The Yanks' stunning victory will go down as one of the greatest upsets in the 58-year history of the challenge round. The odds were stacked high against them when the matches began Monday, for Australia had won the Cup seven times in the last eight years and had kept it "down under" since 1955.

But now the cherished trophy—symbol of world amateur tennis supremacy—is headed back to the States. And all the credit belongs to Olmedo, a fearless netman with Indian blood in his veins who tomahawked Australia's greatest stars with cool deliberation.

The 22-year-old student at Southern California had a hand in all three American victories. He spanked Anderson in Monday's opening singles match and then teamed with Hamilton Richardson to win yesterday's doubles match and gave the U.S. a 2-1 lead.

However, the Chief saved his most devastating tennis for Cooper, who had defeated Mackay on opening day.

NO SWEAT

Cooper won the Wimbledon and U.S. titles this year and generally is regarded as the world's greatest amateur player. But he didn't scare Olmedo, who zipped to a 3-0 lead in the opening set and won that one without working up a sweat.

The Aussie rallied to win the second set, but Olmedo again started fast in the third, winning the first four games. Cooper eventually reduced his deficit to 4-5, then fought off three set points in the 10th game before Olmedo banged home a slow drop-shot that eluded his rival's reach.

Now Olmedo needed only one more set for victory. With the score tied 6-6 in the fourth set, the Chief broke Cooper's service when the Aussie suffered his 11th double-fault of the match and then closed it out with a love game on his delivery.

HAPPY TEARS

Although Olmedo had shown no emotion during the matches, his face was drenched with tears of happiness at the conclusion of today's clincher.

"I felt confident when I went out there despite the fact I was aware I was playing the world's greatest amateur," he said.

Olmedo then gave full credit for his fine showing to Perry Jones, the non-playing captain of the U.S. team "who has done so much for me since I came to the United States," and to professional promoter Jack Kramer, Jones' aide-de-camp.

KRAMER HELPED

"When I led 2-1 Kramer told me to just keep playing the way I was except to occasionally run away from my backhand to upset Cooper," Alex added. "I did just what Kramer told me and it worked fine."

Although Kramer helped set up the Aussies' upset with his expert teaching, he may have ruined plans for his next tour, for he announced earlier he planned to sign Anderson and Cooper to pro contracts after the challenge round.

Drake Loses 3 Basketball Tilts

George Washington High School of San Francisco swept three basketball games from Drake High yesterday afternoon at the Drake gymnasium.

The scores were 48-46 in an overtime varsity tilt; 46-22 in the junior varsity and 51-21 in Class B.

Dick Spackman's 17 points led the Drake varsity while Dick Llewellyn had 14 and Daryl Sattui 12. The regulation game ended in a 41-41 stalemate.

Steve Anderson and Jack Abendshan each had 6 points for the Drake JV's and Mike Bresnan topped Drake's B team, also with 6.

Tomorrow's Rose Bowl Game Stirs Memories Of Thrillers Of Past

New Year resolutions are a dime a dozen, especially in sports. I remember distinctly some years ago, when my Uncle Mike was trotting around, he decided that he would do something to curb his temper. So he resolved to speak cheerfully and kindly and graciously to everybody he met.

We started for the races at Santa Anita, and at a stop signal Uncle Mike, still smiling, looks up and sees a fellow motorist in trouble.

"What's the matter?" sez Uncle Mike. "Have you a flat tire?"

The motorist, who saw Uncle Mike smiling, thought he was being given the old bird, so he cracked: "Listen, you red-nosed mick, do not give me the razoo or I will climb aboard that putt-putt and beat the brains outta you."

Uncle Mike got red under the collar and neck and yelled back: "That is good enough for me, you fugitive from a road gang," and started to climb cutta the heap. So I held him back and later, as we drove off and the guy straightened up, we saw a terribly large fellow who had a monkey wrench in his hands. So Uncle Mike was okay for the moment and kept chatting and smiling and trying hard to spread good cheer.

WE WERE just leaving the Rose Parade and heading for the Rose Bowl game when an inebriated gent bumped into him, almost knocking him to the ground. What made it worse was that the drunk yells at Uncle Mike and says: "Why don't you look where you are going?"

Uncle Mike, remembering his resolution, gently replied: "One must take a little bitter with the sweet," and started to walk off when the inebriated gent began riding him pretty hard.

"Into each life a little rain must fall," my Uncle Mike said, smiling cooly.

But before the grin was off his kisser the drunk wound up and hit my Uncle Mike on the snoot.

IT WAS REALLY tough getting Uncle Mike to keep his New Year's resolution but I kept telling him of the great moments in the Rose Bowl.

Remember, I told Uncle

CONNOLLY

Mike, the biggest thrills in sport came in the Rose Bowl so don't be meddling with that drunk or we'll miss the biggest show on earth.

And then I began talking fast, for Uncle Mike is no slouch, and he had to be convinced that it was better for him to come with me than trade punches with the stranger.

Remember when Brick Muller of California threw a 70 yard pass against Ohio State? That was in 1921. Uncle Mike rounded to the bait.

"Don't give me that 70 yard business. It was 35 yards, etc."

"Actually it was a 35-yard gain on a 53-yard pass," sez Uncle Mike.

REMEMBER ROY Riegels in the 1929 game, sezzi? He ran 69 yards in the wrong direction against Georgia Tech and was fackled right in the shadow of the goal line. And then kicking from behind his own goal line Benny Lom's kick was blocked and Georgia Tech won the game 8 to 7.

"Yeah," sez Uncle Mike, "I'm glad we didn't wait for that bum. Mebbe I'd have missed another great moment in Rose Bowl history."

So I rattled off a few great moments that came to my mind and told him about Notre Dame and the Four Horsemen against Stanford; Washington against Alabama when George Wilson, broken ribs and all, met Johnny Mack Brown in a duel of touchdowns. Then about the Howell to Hutson pass combination of Alabama-Stanford game of 1935 when in a matter of 13 minutes Alabama scored 22 points.

All these great moments of sport run through a guy's mind as he heads for the greatest triple show on earth... a Rose Parade, a Rose Bowl game and listening over the radio to 80,000 witnesses scream as the horses at Santa Anita roar down the stretch.

I'll be seein' you later, Jim Gilmartin, and a happy, happy new year to everybody.

Bill Russell Unrivaed King Of Backboards

BOSTON (UPI)—Bouncing Bill Russell, billed two years ago as the greatest "big man" to hit professional basketball since George Mikan, has become undisputed king of the backboards.

The six-10 former San Francisco All-America has yo-hoed his way to more than 3,000 rebounds in the equivalent of two seasons with the Boston Celtics in the National Basketball Assn.

His scoring feats, while not spectacular, have been climbing steadily to a present 17.5 point average. His rebounding has definitely been spectacular, the latest NBA statistics giving him 585 in 26 games and a spread of more than 100 grabs over the No. 2 boardman.

REBOUND MARK

Russell's name already appears in a dozen places in the NBA record books. He holds the all-time season rebounding mark of 1,564 set last year, his first full campaign. He got the most rebounds in a single game, 49, most in a half and most in a quarter.

Russell tied for third among the best field goal shooters in the league a year ago and was fifth most active player, working an average of 38.3 minutes per game.

When Bill signed his play-for-pay contract in the midst of the 1956-57 season, Boston owner Walter Brown predicted he would be the big man needed to make the then-faltering Celtics professional champions.

COULDN'T PLAY

"The first year he was up we won the world's championship. Last year he was hurt and we lost in the playoffs. He couldn't play and we got beat," recalls Brown.

"Right now, we've won 10 in-a-row and have the best record in the league. Russell's been healthy."

Has Russell fulfilled his promise?

"After all," said Brown, "we knew we were getting a good big man. He had played for two NCAA champions and in the Olympic Games. We needed a good big man and he certainly was it."

"Last year, the players voted him the most valuable player in the league. The sportswriters didn't pick him; the players who have to play against him every day did."

NOT REPEATED

That oversight was not repeated. Russell was named center on the 1958-59 East all-star team announced yesterday at New York.

Russell has been involved in only one dispute since joining the pro ranks. That was last season when he was accused of "goal-tending" or illegally knocking the ball away from the hoops on its downward flight.

Rival coaches, tired of seeing their shots snatched off the rim, demanded that the officials watch Russell more closely.

The whistle brigade closed in, and after a three-week study gave the towering center a clean bill. There hasn't been a peep out of anyone since.

The average cost of filling a tooth in San Francisco is $7.14, highest in the nation, according to the U.S. Commerce Department. The average cost in Washington, D.C., and New York is $5.17. Cincinnati, at $3.50, has one of the lowest averages in the country.

BATISTA'S SONS LEAVE CUBA

Two sons of Cuban President Fulgencio Batista, Carlos Manuel, 10, (left), and Roberto Francisco, 12, are seen leaving plane at New York's Idlewild Airport yesterday. The boys, accompanied by eight older Cubans, friends of the Batista family, were sent to New York to enjoy the holiday season, according to the Cuban government; to escape the imminent downfall of the Batista regime, according to Cuban rebels. Batista and his wife kept their other six children on the island, on which heavy fighting between government and rebel forces is still raging today. (AP Wirephoto)

Teacher Tells Version Of Cuba Arrest

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A Louisville, Ky., teacher, snatched off a plane by Cuban secret police in Havana, said here today his troubles were caused by a simple question.

"I just asked a man at the airport how far Fidel Castro was from the city," said Louis F. Brantley, the teacher.

Castro is the leader of the Cuban rebels.

'SWARTHY MEN'

"What happened after that was a sight to see," Brantley said. "Swartthy looking men started chasing me and my friend (another Louisville teacher, James W. Reid) and the next thing we knew we had been pulled off our plane. They weren't nice. They didn't exactly string us up on a pole and whip us, but they did everything they could to be mean and ugly."

Brantley, 22, and Reid, 38, were returning from a vacation in the British West Indies and were scheduled to stop at the Havana airport for 40 minutes before resuming their flight home yesterday.

WRONG QUESTION

"We decided to get a look at the Spanish restaurant in the airport and were walking back to the plane when I asked the wrong question," said Brantley.

Cuban officials said that Brantley and Reid shouted "Viva Castro." Brantley denied this.

They were released late yesterday and caught a flight to Miami.

The two teachers originally had been on a plane en route to New Orleans.

Dulles' Aide Quizzed On U.S. Cuban Policy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A Senate foreign relations subcommittee today sought "official clarification" of U. S. policy toward the Cuban revolution.

Assistant Secretary of State Roy Rubottom was expected to be questioned in closed session about reports the United States might send troops to Cuba to back up the regime of Fulgencio Batista.

Subcommittee Chairman Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) said yesterday he was concerned about such reports.

The State Department has insisted, however, it was keeping "hands off" the touchy internal affairs of the beleaguered

Liberal Religious Youth Set Party

About 100 teen-agers from Marin and other Bay Area counties are expected to attend a dinner and dance Saturday at 5 p.m. at the Marin Jewish Community Center, San Rafael, under auspices of the Liberal Religious Youth Group of the Unitarian Church of Marin.

Charles Fesler, social studies teacher at San Rafael High School, will address the group between the dinner and dance, presenting a humorous yet thought-provoking view of "World War III."

The dinner and dance will be combined with the quarterly meeting of Starr King Federation of Liberal Religious Youth, of which the Marin group is a unit. Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Tornroth of Greenbrae are advisers to the local group and Peggy Roberts of Mill Valley is president.

Cubans. Rep. Charles O. Porter (D-Ore.), an outspoken critic of the Batista regime, predicted the Batista government would fall within two weeks. Fidel Castro, leader of rebel forces in Cuba, has launched a new offensive to overthrow the government.

Rubottom was called before the Subcommittee on American Republics' affairs.

The hearing came after sharp congressional reaction to the arrest of two American teachers who were seized at Havana aboard a homeward bound airliner, for allegedly shouting pro-rebel slogans.

THIEF LIVES UP TO HIS NOM DE PLUME

NEWCASTLE - ON-TYNE, England (UPI)—Henry Holland, 38, was sentenced to four months in jail yesterday after he told a court he had lived at 31 hotels without paying a bill and had stolen from five of them.

Holland said he usually registered as "Mr. Crook."

Allies Reject 'Free' Berlin, Urge Parley

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Western Big Three called on the Soviet Union today to discuss the entire German problem, including Berlin's future, at a new four-power conference. They rejected firmly any such talks under menace or ultimatum.

In similar notes, the United States, Britain and France:

1. Flatly rejected Premier Nikita Khrushchev's proposal to turn West Berlin into a so-called free city.

DENOUNCE PLAN

2. Denounced as a violation of international agreements Khrushchev's announced plan to turn over Soviet controls in East Berlin to the East Germans.

3. Served notice the three allies intend to keep their forces in West Berlin to protect the freedom and security of the more than two million West Berliners.

In offering to talk over the German deadlock, the United States said in a 2,000-word note that it is "ready at any time to enter into discussions with the Soviet government."

WIDER FRAMEWORK

The note emphasized that the proposed talks would not be on the Berlin problem alone, but should embrace "the wider framework of negotiations for a solution of the German problem as well as that of European security."

The note mentioned the need to talk over Western proposals for free all-German elections or "any other proposals genuinely designed to secure the unification of Germany in freedom."

No date or place was suggested for the talks. Nor was there any hint of the level at which the discussions would be held.

Some Western diplomatic officials are known to be thinking in terms of a Big Four foreign ministers conference some time in the spring.

Aliens Must Make Annual Report

Some 2,500 aliens living in Marin County will be required to report their addresses to the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service next month.

The necessary forms will be available at all post offices in Marin after Jan. 2. They may also be obtained from the Immigration Service office at 630 Sansome street, San Francisco.

Bruce G. Barber, director of the service, said willful violation of the address report regulation may result in fines, imprisonment or deportation.

"For an investment of only 2.00 for a MAC membership card I figure we saved over $210 in purchases made at MAC during the last six months. We visit MAC at least once a week."

Gordon Poole

"Quite frankly I am a little irritated at some of the high prices I recently paid for merchandise which MAC sells at from 15% to 60% off in discounts. It's MAC for me from now on."

Kitty O'Herrin

Club Dances And Private Parties Will Ring In Marin's New Year

Highlighting the holiday social calendar will be the New Year's Eve parties and dinner dances tonight throughout the county when Marinites will ring in the new year at private affairs or the events planned at the various clubs.

A cocktail hour at 7:30 p.m., will precede the New Year's Eve dinner dance for the San Rafael Order of Elks 1108. A buffet dinner will be served. Frank Ench is chairman of the event. More than 300 are expected to attend.

More than 75 members and guests of the San Francisco Yacht Club will ring in the new year at their New Year's Eve dinner dance with a steak dinner and champagne at midnight. Paul Maruccci of San Francisco is chairman of the gala event.

Confetti, serpentine and balloons will form the decor for the annual New Year's Eve Ball at the Sausalito Woman's Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. John Sweeney are combining talents to decorate the clubhouse for the guests to "ring in the new year" in the traditional style of an old fashioned New Year's Eve.

Three no-host cocktail parties at 7:30 o'clock will precede the roast beef dinner at 9 p.m.

Guests will be greeted by Mike Quinn, Ron Mackenzie and Bill Lynch at the respective parties to set the atmosphere of "Auld Lang Syne."

Mrs. Sally Stapp is chairman.

Among those who have made reservations are Mayor and Mrs. Howard Sievers, Dr. and Mrs. Ronald Mackenzie and Messrs. and Mesdames D. W. Whittaker, Robert Rogers, Harry Beebe, Bryon Mayo, Victor Wollman, John Koenig Jr., John Alexander, John Sweeney, Charles Cross, Edward Ravizza, Edward Bennett, Stanley Cowen, Frank Nelson, Willard Hall, George Kowski, Earl Thompson, George Quinn, William Lynch, Richard Phillips, Marshall Fickert, George Chapman, Robert Watson, Charles Knaebel, William McNaught, Clyde Trudell, R. Jerold Hooper, Sylvester McAtee, Van Allen Treat, Norton Meyer, Jacques Johnet, Richard Cruikshank, Edward Superka, Emmet Rixford, Emile Waldteufel, Thomas Decker, and Mrs. Sally Stapp and Mrs. William Erskine.

NOVATO CLUB
An atmosphere of "Luxury flight to the exotic capitals of the world" will greet couples as they enter the Novato Community Club the last evening of 1958.

Title for the gay event is "New Year's Eve in Seven Countries." Mrs. Paul Terry, co-chairman of the dance with her husband, explained that the main ball room will take the revelers around the world.

Several Novato couples have planned pre-dance parties in their homes. They are Messrs. and Mesdames George Barnwell, Fred Volz, Paul Terry, William Jonas, Claude Brown, and Robert Bowman.

The Novato Horsemen, Inc. are expecting a "Capacity crowd" of 100 to attend its annual New Year's Eve dance at the clubhouse on Bugeia lane. All appropriate paraphernalia will be dispersed to the group to welcome 1959 and a buffet supper will be served at midnight, stated Mrs. Ralph McGrath, co-chairman of the dance with her husband.

At the Meadow Club's traditional New Year's Eve Dinner dance, multi-colored balloons to be released at midnight will signal the arrival of the new year. The party will be formal and will begin with cocktails at 7:30 p.m., followed by dinner and dancing. A continental breakfast at 2 o'clock will climax the affair. Mr. and Mrs. J. Benton Tully are in charge of the entertainment committee.

YACHT CLUB
Champagne toasts at midnight will signal the new year at the Corinthian Yacht Club's annual New Year's Eve party which begins with cocktails preceding the 9 o'clock dinner. More than 100 members and their guests will attend the annual event.

One of the gayest affairs in the Mill Valley area New Year's Eve will be the Tam Valley Improvement Club's party—an annual event so popular that reservations were closed last week when the capacity of 75 couples was reached.

The Tam Valley Improvement Clubhouse will be set up night club style, and there will be singing, dancing, fancy hats, noise makers, serpentine, balloons, confetti and midnight surprises.

General chairman Nick Pendleton will be master of ceremonies for the floor show to be presented by some of the club members who received rave notices on their annual variety show, "Rhubarb Review."

Opening the evening's festivities will be community singing led by Morrie Batz, and among numbers to be presented in the floor show will be a dialogue by Jack Adams; "My Gal Sal," sung by Bill Hoffman; a Father Time skit presented by Jack Foisie and Mrs. Floyd Beaver; a song and dance number by the Arthur Crebassas; "The 1959 Girl" portrayed by Mrs. Bernard Healey; and a skit

Rainbow Girls Are Entertained At Party

Members of the San Rafael Assembly Order of Rainbow for Girls were entertained at a recent Christmas party at the LeRoy Fairchild home in San Rafael by Marilyn Beyer, worthy advisor, and Carol Fairchild, faith.

The afternoon included the singing of Christmas carols and playing of charades. Gifts were exchanged and refreshments served.

"Three Wise Guys," presented by Walter Lowden, Morrie Batz and Joe Allen.

Others working on the committee are Col. and Mrs. Clifford Snow, Messrs. and Mesdames Kenneth Badger, Donn Nissen, Gene Talda, J. E. Hamburg, Byron Boulware and Robert Glessner.

At 1 a. m. there will be a smorgasbord and prizes for lucky celebrants.

"The Bubble Ball" is the theme for the Merry-Go-Rounders New Year's Eve dinner dance at the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley.

TENNIS CLUB
Two other New Year's Eve affairs in Mill Valley will be the dance at the Mill Valley Tennis Club and the party of the Mill Valley Lions Club.

Top secret is the word for the decor of the Tennis Club. It will begin with cocktails at 7:30 p. m. and a roast beef dinner will be served at 8:30 o'clock and champagne toasts will be drunk at midnight. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morehouse are in charge of the gala dinner dance.

The Mill Valley Golf Club will be the setting for the Lions Club party. Dancing will be featured and a midnight buffet supper will be served. Cecil Kindred is general chairman.

The party planned at the Southern Marin Recreation Center will begin with cocktails at 9 o'clock followed by dancing until 2 a. m. Champagne and a midnight buffet will be served.

Beauties Tell Success Secrets

PASADENA (UP) — Take it from the Rose Queens. There really is a secret formula for beauty.

Who could be more likely to know the secret than these winners of the beauty crown of the Pasadena Tournament of Roses?

The very first Rose Queen, Hallie Woods McConnell, vintage 1904, is still attractive, living proof of the old saw: "Once a queen, always a queen."

Her secret: s-p-i-r-i-t. She said so, with plenty of same, adding:

"A girl who lets herself feel bored and discouraged can look old at twenty."

To Cherryl Walker Coumbe, the 1938 Rose Queen, good grooming is the essence of beauty. Cherryl gave up an acting career to marry a successful physician. She now has a 10-year-old daughter.

"I choose my clothes to fit my way of life, rather than slavishly following the dictates of fashion," says Cherryl.

To Trudy Wood, the 1958 Rose Queen, beauty is largely a matter of good health and careful selection of clothing.

"No girl can sparkle when she feels like sagging. And that attractive sparkle is produced by good health," she said.

A DEVOTED BROTHER DONATES TO BPWC MEMORIAL FUND

Because of the devotion of a brother to the memory of one of Marin County's finest and most beloved teachers, another young person in the county will be able to further his or her education. The brother, John Cook, every year at Christmas time sends to the Business and Professional Women's Club of Marin County a check for $100 for its Isabel Cook and Alice Wells memorial loan fund.

Soon after the death of Mrs. Wells, who was general supervisor of Marin County schools, the fund was established in her name by the BPWC. When Isabel Cook, her dearest friend, died in 1949, the name of the fund was changed to include both of their names. At the time of her death Miss Cook was principal of the Red Hill School in San Anselmo. In her honor the name was changed to the Isabel Cook School soon after her death.

Ever since Miss Cook's death her brother, who is a civilian employee with the Air Force in Fairbanks, Alaska, has sent a hundred dollars at Christmas time for the memorial fund. The money is loaned to young people for schooling in the careers they have chosen.

Miss Cook and Mrs. Wells were both charter members of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Marin and to them goes much credit for the success of the organization.

Square Dance Clubs Hosts At Yule Party

The Spinning Spurs and Stump Jumpers Christmas square dance party at the IDESI Hall in Novato was attended by 12 squares of dancers. Honored guest was Mark Dunn, president of the Northern California Callers Assn. He was accompanied by members of his BVD Club in Santa Rosa. He also called for several dances. Charlie Bassett was the caller for the evening. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. John Young of the Spinning Spurs and Mr. and Mrs. John Ohlrichs of the Stump Jumpers.

Clubs and their callers present were Haybalers, with Sparkey Sparks; Charmin' Farmers and Larry Twist; also Jeans and Janes, Novato Squares, Feather Dusters, Marin Crickets, Double Diamonds, Top Hands and Fiddle Footers.

The Spinning Spurs are sponsoring a beginners' square dance class at the E. St. School, San Rafael Tuesday night, Jan. 6 from 8 o'clock until 10. Charlie Bassett is the instructor. All beginners are welcome. The party night will be Saturday, Jan. 10, at the IDESI Hall, Novato, with Howard Peck caller. The regular workshop resumes on Wednesday night, Jan. 7, at the Santa Venetia School.

ENGAGEMENT of Mary Kathleen Sheridan (above) and Robert Michael (Mike) Doolittle has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sheridan of Greenbrae. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Doolittle of Larkspur are parents of the future benedict.

ENGAGEMENT NEWS TOLD

The romance of Mary Kathleen Sheridan and Robert Michael Doolittle, which began when they were students at Marin Catholic High School, has resulted in their engagement. The glad news is announced by her parents, the Ralph Sheridans of Greenbrae. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Doolittle of Larkspur are parents of the future benedict. The young couple plans a wedding in the early fall.

After graduation from Marin Catholic, the future benedict, who is called Mike, attended College of Marin. He is now with du Pont Co. in South San Francisco.

Kathleen, as the bride-elect is called, is the sister of Maureen and Philip Sheridan of Greenbrae. Mike has three brothers, William Doolittle of Los Angeles, Richard Doolittle of Berkeley and James Doolittle of Larkspur. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Doolittle of Jamestown, N.Y.

Blythedale Lodge Elects New Officers

Mrs. Peggy Dahl was elected noble grand of Blythedale Rebekah Lodge No. 305 at the recent meeting in the Mill Valley Odd Fellows Temple.

Elected to serve with her were Mrs. Eldora Clinton, vice grand; Roy Wright, recording secretary; and Mesdames Eva Frazier, financial secretary; Al Hughes, treasurer; and Clifford Spinney, trustee.

Following the meeting conducted by outgoing noble grand Mrs. James Cochran a play, "Santa's Arrest," was presented.

Participating were Messrs. and Mesdames Al Hughes, Harold Owens, George Meidierks and Mrs. Jack Clausen, and Mrs. Herbert Maxey was the commentator.

The hall and officers' stations were decorated with Christmas motifs by the Hughes and Owens, and gifts were given to all present by Santa Claus.

Refreshments were served in the banquet hall at red and green decorated tables by Mesdames Tony Fontes, Robert Gerrish and Grace Woolridge.

On Thursday evening, Jan. 8, the lodge will observe "Brothers' Night."

Eagles' Auxiliary Has Dinner Party
Fraternal Order of Eagles' Auxiliary 256 of San Rafael held its Christmas dinner party at Buon Gusto Villa in Fairfax recently for members and guests.

Mrs. Robert Bonn, president of the auxiliary, introduced its adopted daughter, Miss Frances Kay Farrell and presented her with a gift.

The group sang Christmas carols led by Mrs. Paul Kraft and accompanied by Mrs. Olive Wall.

The evening was concluded with games and dancing. Chairmen were Mesdames Joseph C. Serna, A. F. E. Da Silva, and Helen Brown.

On the entertainment committee were Mrs. Hubert Fentemeyer, Mrs. Jesse Taylor, and Miss Florine Hoffman.

Herb Guide
EAST LANSING, Mich. (UPI)—Herbs can "spruce up" vegetables, says Anita Dean, extension specialist at Michigan State University.

To compliment tomatoes, try basil, marjoram, oregano and sage.

Nutmeg adds pep to asparagus, carrots, acorn squash and sweet potatoes. Or try sage with onions, succotash, creamed corn, and pork and beans.

Use herbs in sparing amounts—1/3 to 1/4 teaspoon for every four servings.

Are You Wishing For A Leaner New Year?

By PATRICIA McCORMACK

NEW YORK (UPI)—If you can keep your waistline while all about are losing theirs, then a happier New Year is in store for you.

Chew on this new twist to Kipling if you are one of 34 million Americans who must battle bulges during the New Year, as in the old.

You can't resolve to be anti-social and sit in a corner at parties and festive dinners. But every time you open that mouth to talk, seems the hostess insists on popping some calorie-laden thing into it.

How to brake the habit! Stick by good dieting principles. It's better to be careful now than plump later.

Play down foods which add inches at a gallop. Substitute others with fewer calories. Every munch count in this waistline war.

For the main course, avoid fatty meats—pork, duck, goose or ham. Choose roast beef, turkey or chicken — sans sweet and fattening sauces.

Leave the drum sticks for children. White meat is lower in calories than dark.

There's less to be "gained" from seasonal dishes such as fresh cranberry sauce and chestnuts than from candied yams—dripping in calories.

Fresh green salads are always good, if you shy from the rich dressings and sauces. Vote for oil, vinegar, tomato or similar slim toppings.

Radishes, celery, carrot sticks, pickles, carrot are more slimming than olives.

Stand by the clear soups. Use blenders where creamy ones are concerned.

Cocktail hour and between meal tidbitting can be calorie-cheap and delicious. Feast on boiled shrimp and lobster, crab meat or oysters.

You can conserve calories by switching to artificial sweeteners for coffee and tea. Maybe the hostess will serve low-calorie desserts too, to help you along.

Danger lurks in the usual party that's way past the dinner eating time. Hard-to-control hunger pangs may drag you—weak and helpless—to the refrigerator before it's time to start for the party.

To reinforce calorie control check with a doctor about the use of appetite suppressants. A new one (Levonor) does not stimulate the central nervous system. Medical reports indicate it can be taken at night and does not disturb sleeping later on.

On the drinking side, remember that most cocktails run over with calories. Dry red or white wine, mixed with soda water as a "spritzer" will last a long sipping time without supplying too many calories.

Decorator Says Homemakers Buy Too Much Furniture

CHICAGO (UPI)—Most home makers buy too much furniture, says interior decorator Marion Heuer.

They clutter up their rooms with too much furniture and too many colors, she said, and fall prey to "old wives' tales" in decorating—northern exposures require warm colors, for instance.

Mrs. Heuer, whose clients include home owners, apartment building and hotel operators along the wealthy North Shore, believes it is cheaper and smarter to engage a professional interior decorator. But for novices who belong to the do-it-yourself school, she offers a few rules:

Don't be too price conscious on each item. Splurge on something important like a cocktail table, then balance by spending less than originally planned on something else.

Use colors sparingly. A monotone room is restful, and can be enlivened by bright colors in accessories—pillows, wall hangings, or an occasional chair.

Choose draperies of lightweight material that will allow light to come through. "They should seem part of the wall," she said.

Combine woods with discretion. "Walnut and cherry are fine with mahogany, but certainly you shouldn't combine 18th century mahogany with blond woods."

Consider the so-called distress finish if there are children in the family. Accidental nicks in the wood can be touched up with dark paint and made to appear part of the original finish.

Hang accessories with the same knack a well dressed woman uses in wearing jewelry. "The cheapest can look smart if properly hung. It makes the difference between style and no style," she said.

Mark It

An easy way to keep track of your home address is to paint your home address on the sides and covers. Galvanized steel garbage cans should be cleaned with a vinegar and water solution to help paint adhere to the zinc-coated surface.

SYMPHONY GUILD BALL PLANNED FOR JAN. 31 AT MEADOW CLUB

Saturday, Jan. 31, has been selected by the Symphony Guild of Marin for its annual ball. Once again the party, to be held at the Meadow Club, will feature a cocktail hour, followed by a sit-down dinner, then dancing to the music of Hugo Rinaldi's Orchestra.

Mrs. A. Barlow Ferguson, special activities chairman for the Symphony Guild, is in charge of arrangements for the ball. Her assistants include Mesdames John Merryman, Hugh Shippey Jr., Edward Russ and Barry Boland.

In addition to its Symphony Guild Orchestra the Symphony Guild of Marin sponsors a Youth Orchestra whose next concert, under the direction of Hugo Rinaldi, will be held Saturday, Jan. 24, at 3 p.m. at Novato High School.

Food Dollars Stretch Little More During '59

By BERNARD BRENNER

Washington (UPI)—You can expect your food dollar to buy just a little more in 1959.

If you're a careful shopper, watching for the bargains economists expect on the pork and poultry counters, you can make a deeper cut in food spending without cutting your standard of living.

That's the outlook for 1959, summed up by farm and consumer experts of the Department of Agriculture.

The overall food price average is expected to come down slightly in 1959 because there will be more food on the market, these experts explain.

Pork production is headed up and poultry production will remain high. There will be more citrus in food markets and unless there's a repetition of last year's unusual freezes in the south, vegetable supplies also will be much greater.

The experts cautiously talk of "some easing" in retail food prices in 1959. They point out that the steady upward march of the cost of processing and marketing food is expected to continue; this will swallow up part of the savings consumers could expect from reduced farm prices.

With the nation's population rising steadily to put more customers at the retail food counter, total domestic food demand in 1959 should be at peak levels.

Total food spending will probably top the 1958 level slightly, the experts predict although the average family's food bill is likely to be a little lower.

Some of the highlights, as seen by government specialists:

Meat: Beef supplies will be about the same or up slightly and prices will likely be about the same in 1958. Pork production will rise sharply and retail prices, beginning in early spring, will go substantially below 1958 levels. Little change is expected in supplies or prices of other red meats.

Fish: There may be heavier supplies of canned fish through mid-spring and prices could ease slightly. Little change is expected for fresh and frozen fish.

Poultry and Eggs: Poultry supplies on a per capita basis may go up to a record high in 1959. Prices, which reached the lowest level since the early 1940's this year, are likely to continue low and could sag further early in the year. Eggs will probably be cheaper in the first half of 1959 than a year earlier.

Fruits: The big news is the increase in citrus production over last year's freeze-blasted harvest, with supplies of frozen concentrated juices rising and prices down. Fresh fruits generally will be in more plentiful supply through mid-spring than a year ago, and a little cheaper.

Vegetables: Vegetable supplies through the winter and spring will be greater than a year ago with substantial increases for potatoes and dry beans. Prices for fresh vegetables through the winter will probably be much lower than the high level of one year ago. Because of higher processing and distributing costs, retail prices of most processed vegetables may be a little higher.

Dairy Products: Little change is expected in per capita supply, although total production apparently is headed up, and prices are likely to average close to 1958 levels.

Bread and Cereals: Wheat and corn supplies are at record levels, but civilian per capita consumption of grain foods in 1959 will not change much from 1958 and retail prices will probably be a little higher because of increased processing and marketing costs.

Puppet Show Is Program At Party Of Nursery School

Children of the Mill Valley Cooperative nursery school did practically everything themselves for their annual Christmas party held recently at the school.

Under a tree decorated with ornaments the children had constructed were necklaces they had made for their mothers and ash trays for their fathers.

For entertainment they presented a puppet show, "The Night Before Christmas," and after the program refreshments, including cookies the children had baked the previous day, were served.

Highlight of the afternoon for the little hosts and hostesses was the breaking open of

IN A RECENT holiday wedding at Mission San Rafael Arcangel, Roberta Ann Keesmaat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Keesmaat of San Rafael, became the bride of Dale D. Chase of Sausalito. He is the son of Mrs. Francis S. Chase Jr. of Sausalito. (Milton Mann photo)

IN MISSION

Roberta Keesmaat Weds Dale Chase

Mission San Rafael Arcangel was the setting for the recent holiday wedding of Roberta Ann Keesmaat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Keesmaat of San Rafael, and Dale D. Chase of Sausalito.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Francis S. Chase Jr. of Sausalito and the late Mr. Chase.

Poinsettias were at the altar for the 12 o'clock double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. James E. Cain.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of ivory satin fashioned with a wide V neckline in front and back and long kimono sleeves. Her fingertip veil of net edged in lace was attached to a tiara. She carried a prayer book with white orchid and satin streamers.

Marianna Keesmaat, of San Rafael as maid of honor for her sister wore a red print taffeta gown fashioned with a red criss-cross cummerbund and red streamers for back detail. She wore a white fur headband and carried a white muff.

Juanita Aralar of Larkspur was gownwed like the maid of honor and Diane Keesmaat of San Rafael, the bride's sister as junior bridesmaid, wore a red gown with criss cross print cummerbund. They had white fur headresses and also carried white muffs.

John Brazil of Vallejo, the bride's cousin, was ring bearer. Joseph Chase of Sausalito served his brother as best man and ushers were Stephen Chase of Sausalito, the bridegroom's brother, and Ashton Hutchins of Santa Venetia.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Keesmaat wore a blue and green print silk dress with blue and green hat and accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Chase wore a grey crepe dress with grey shoes, blue hat and black accessories and an orchid corsage.

A reception for 50 guests followed the ceremony at the Traveler's Inn. A Christmas theme was used in arrangements.

Sharon Morphys of San Rafael was in charge of the guest book.

For a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, the bride wore a beige suit with blue and brown accessories.

The bride was graduated from Marin Catholic High school and is now in her sophomore year at Dominican College. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Pieter Keesmaat of Amsterdam, Holland.

The bridegroom was graduated from Tamalpais High school and attended College of Marin. He is now employed at Macy's of San Rafael.

New Location

Marin Felt and Needle Nook has moved to a larger building located at 1000 Magnolia at the Larkspur-Kentfield line. They have the only local stock of felt in over 60 shades, and now stock yarn and a huge selection of braid. The owner is Mrs. Patricia Lines who started up the business as a hobby several years ago.

Trapeze Aprons

Look for "trapeze" aprons. A variation of the popular cobbler apron becomes the new silhouette. It falls in a straight line from shoulder to fingertip or knee. Two pockets perch waist-high, and bows decorate slits at the sides. It drops over the head and does not require buttoning or fastening.

Multi-Tweeds Star

Multi-color tweeds star in suits by Davidow. The tweeds combine mauve with soft shades of purple, green, and blue. Coats come in matching tweeds, plaids or solid mauve.

Fancied Feet

New shoes step out with lots of embroidery, punching and perforations. The embroidery is not used all over but in strips, insets and medallions.

Betrothal Told At Yuletide

Christmas tidings from Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Gustafson of Marin City reveal the engagement of their daughter, Janice Arlene Gustafson, and Curtis John Moore. The young people first met when attending Tamalpais High School from which they were graduated.

The bride-elect is the sister of Dennis, Gary and Gayle Gustafson, who live at the family home, and she is the granddaughter of Mrs. Lucille Cutter of Santa Rosa.

The future benedict, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest R. Moore of Tamalpais Valley, has one sister, Mrs. Earl White of Novato.

Wedding plans of the young couple are indefinite.

MARILYN BAGSHAW IS ENGAGED TO LT. JAMES F. HENTHORNE

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Bagshaw of Mill Valley at a dinner party Friday evening at their home announced the engagement of their daughter, Marilyn, to Lt. James F. Henthorne, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Henthorne of Springfield, Ohio.

Marilyn, who has a sister, Patricia, will graduate from College of Marin in June.

Jim graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1957 and is now a Nike launcher platoon commander at Fort Barry. He has one younger brother, Stephen.

Wig Maker Business Has Tripled In Year

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—It's getting so you can't tell the pompadour without a program.

All because of the wig hairdos which sprouted in Paris last year and now have become such an American fashion that Sears, Roebuck is selling them mail order.

"The wigs aren't a fad," said Doris Fleischer, treasurer of the Joseph Fleischer Co., which has been in other people's hair for 128 years. "They'll stay in style because they provide the solution to a problem plaguing 50 per cent of the female population . . . that of baby-fine, limp locks."

But women other than those with hair problems are wearing the new crowning glories covering their own, in colors ranging from a conservative brown to a startling red and white candy stripe.

Some buy them just for kicks; others want a change of color without having to bleach or dye.

Still others, especially business women and busy socialites, find them artful camouflage for a head of real hair desperately in need of shampoo and set.

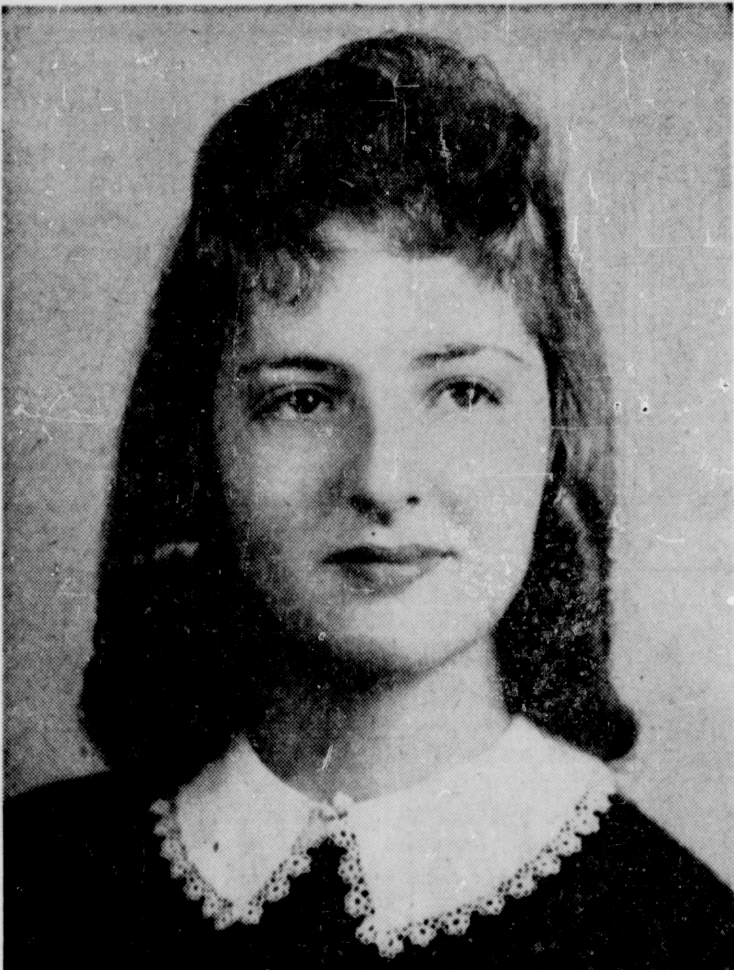

Wig makers can't produce statistics on overall sales of wigs, but Fleischer said its business has "tripled" since a year ago when Paris designer Hubert De Givenchy put wigs on models for a fashion show. Those were from Carita Souers, Paris hairdressers, who now are doing a boom business internationally.

The first wigs were of genuine hair, most of it from Europe, but it didn't take long for the synthetics to move in. Today, a girl can buy a wig in nylon or dynel or in a combination of the two, at prices well below those made of nature's product. The synthetics are in the $25 to $35 range; the real, from $125 on up to as much as $350 for a custom job.

With the synthetics came a wider color range, because of the way these fibers take tinting. Ruel, head hair stylist for Coiffures Americana which operates a chain of salons in department and specialty stores, did a synthetic wig in red and white candy stripes "Just for fun." "It sold like crazy," said a spokesman. Ruel also did a bee-hive swirl of a wig in 57 tones; but at last report, it still was just a show piece.

"Anything that adds to glamour will sell in America," said our will sell in America," said a realistic business woman named Madame Tovar, a hair stylist in Sweden until 12 years ago when she came to New York. She pioneered the all-dynel wig, and features it in seven "basic" shades—power blue, pale pink, pale orchid, black, titian, silver blonde and platinum blonde. But she also makes them to order to match a woman's costume and owns a whole collection of wigs to match her own wardrobe.

JANICE ARLENE GUSTAFSON, whose engagement to Curtis John Moore has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Gustafson of Marin City, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest R. Moore of Tamalpais Valley are parents of the future benedict.

Linda Reichmuth Is Bride Of D. A. Wilson

Living in Mill Valley are the recently wed Donald Arthur Wilson, Airman 2/c stationed at the 666th Air Control and Warning Station on Mt. Tamalpais, and the former Linda J. Reichmuth.

The double ring ceremony was performed recently at 9:30 a.m. in the Hamilton Air Force Base chapel by Chaplain Marvin O. Gardiner with only the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reichmuth of Mill Valley, present.

Linda was married in a powder blue sheath of sheer wool jersey and matching felt hat and completed her costume with black accessories. She was in her senior year at Tamalpais High School when she left to get married.

The benedict is the son of Mrs. Archie King of St. Louis, Mo., and the late Melburn Arthur Wilson.

When You're Loving One Child, Try Looking Into Eyes Of Other

Do you have two children? Or maybe three, or more? Have you ever looked into the eyes of one child, while you were loving another? Do it sometime. You'll see embarrassment, jealousy, fear, love, anxiety, hatred. What you see may shake you. Your children are rivals. Don't ever forget it.

Each child wants your undivided love and attention. Each one knows he must share you, but it goes against the grain. When they're little they're frank about it. Later they're more subtle. Whatever their age, your love is terribly important.

What can you do about it? I have a few suggestions. The most important one is not to play favorites. Probably you have a favorite most of the time. Your "Billy" is more agreeable than your "Bobby." More obedient, more cheerful. You're human, so you respond. Deep down inside you favor Billy. My point is, don't show it. Do your level best to treat them equally.

Be sure to pay attention to each child. Listen to their chatter. Keep track of what happens at school. Don't let one of them think he is ignored. Share your hugs and your kisses. If you get a fancy present for one, get an equal gift for the others. Birthday presents are an exception, of course. But if one child has a big birthday party, they all should have them. See what I mean?

Our families are getting bigger. The more children you have, the harder it is to treat them alike. In my work I meet many emotionally disturbed boys and girls. They're forlorn, lonely little souls. Usually the cause of their trouble is the feeling of rejection. Rightly or wrongly they've concluded their parents don't love them. Be sure no child of yours has cause to feel that way. Good luck!

Divorce Suit Splits S.F. Cafe Owners

The marriage of Dorothy M. and Don J. Aquilino of San Anselmo, who operate the Tony Pandy cafe in San Francisco, is breaking up for the second time.

Mrs. Aquilino, 38, is suing for divorce in Marin Superior Court, charging grievous bodily injury and mental suffering. They were married in Portland, Ore., on Jan. 19, 1937; divorced in 1950, and remarried in Reno on March 30, 1957. They have two children, Donald, 17, and Jean, 14.

Mrs. Aquilino seeks custody of the children and all community property, which are listed as follows:

Tony Pandy cafe at 51 Maiden lane, San Francisco; home and furnishings at 400 Redhill avenue, San Anselmo; four unimproved lots on Sausalito avenue in Corte Madera; two cars; life insurances, and deposits in banks.

NEWSMAN IN 'SPACE' — Floating free in the air in a weightless state at a simulated altitude of 100,000 feet proves a stimulating if frightening experience for reporter Doug Walker of the Dayton, Ohio, Journal Herald. The newsman, who tested the "flight into space" experiments under way at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base's air development center, achieved the floating state as the pressurized plane model was put through a parabolic maneuver that reduced gravity to zero.

(AP Wirephoto)

Simulated Trip In Space Proves Painful, Terrifying, Exhilarating

By DOUG WALKER

DAYTON, Ohio (P)—I have just made a trip through space — within the safe limits of Wright-Patterson Air Force Base.

The trip was painful, it was terrifying, it was boring. But it was exhilarating.

I blasted off in a simulated flight into outer space under the eyes of researchers at Wright Air Development Center. I felt the vibrations, weightlessness, blackness and isolation. I then re-entered earth's atmosphere and felt the searing heat of space travel. I lost

IGY Ending, But Work To Continue

WASHINGTON (P)—The International Geophysical Year which ushered in the era of earth satellites, ends officially at midnight but it appears the only thing that will pass out of existence immediately is the name.

The 18-month-long "year," in which 66 nations and 30,000 scientists participated at a cost of $1,500,000,000, has been so profitable in terms of discovery that almost everyone wants to see the work continued.

As a result, international committees have been formed to continue the worldwide co-operation in space, Antarctic and oceanographic research and exploration. That just about covers the phases of the IGY which have attracted wide public attention.

LITTLE AMERICA V — Little America soon will be nothing but a dark and icy monument to the curiosity of man.

This last of the Antarctic beachheads established by the late Rear Adm. Richard E. Byrd is being closed as soon as possible after the International Geophysical Year ends tonight.

STARTS FRIDAY — Evacuation of the snow-covered station built near Kainan Bay on the Ross Ice Shelf in 1956—fifth in a series of Little Americas that Byrd started some 40 miles away during his 1928-30 expedition—is scheduled to start Friday.

Twelve U.S. Navy men and 12 IGY men are to lead the exodus.

They are among 180 men now here, 74 of whom wintered in Little America to conduct or support scientific work that ranged from investigation of the heavens over the station to the ice hundreds of feet beneath it.

MAY BE DELAYED — Tentative plans call for the evacuation of other groups Jan. 5 or Jan. 8. If the ships are delayed, however, or the weather is bad, the rear guard possibly may not get out before the end of January.

Most of the equipment in and around the station will be left until late next year—or possibly forever.

Lt. Cmdr. Thomas Thompson of Miami, Fla., the base commander, says he will be lucky to get out 30 per cent now.

almost three pounds in two hours as my rocket ship nosed back to earth.

Although clad in a pressure suit and safe on the ground in a pressure chamber, I found the "climb" to 100,000 feet frightening. The pressure suit was like a skin-tight room filled with pseudo-scientific tricks.

Water boiled when the altitude changed. I banged hands together and could hear only a thud. I dropped pieces of paper and they fell to the floor like lead sheets.

Fantastic vibration, oppressive "G" forces and unbelievable noise jarred me as I blasted off. I was jarred up and down at a force of one "G" each way—nine times a second. I was whirled through space at a force of 3½ "G's."

"G" is for gravity. Everyone has one "G" force equal to his weight pulling him to earth.

At 2½ "G's" a 200-pound man would weigh 500 pounds. Most people have felt "G's" at the bottom of a dip on a roller-coaster.

During acceleration into space, the "G" force will be so great that only the fingers can be moved. Once in space, man will be weightless — no "G's" at all—and will float free.

For this portion of the space trip they placed me on a 48-foot-long human centrifuge, known affectionately as "The Wheel."

At 3½ "G's" my mouth seemed to tear away from my gums. I couldn't lift my head. My arms grew heavy and I could begin to feel the pressure on my chest.

Ike, Advisers Confer

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (P)—President Eisenhower planned an important conference with his speech writers today and a quiet New Year's Eve with his family.

Top White House assistants flew to the Eisenhower farm home from Washington by helicopter for a session on the State of the Union Message which the President will deliver to Congress on Jan. 9.

The staff delegation included Maj. Gen. Wilton B. Persons, the assistant to the President, and Dr. Malcolm Moos, the chief White House speech writer. Press Secretary James C. Hagerty has been here since the President arrived Friday.

SPEEDERS ON NEW JERSEY ROADS WILL LOSE THEIR LICENSES

TRENTON, N. J. (P)—"Speeders lose licenses." Starting tomorrow, those words, posted on signs every five miles on every New Jersey state highway, will warn motorists of a drastic new weapon being used on speeders — mandatory license revocation.

It will be used on anyone caught going 60 miles an hour or more on any road or street in the state, where speed limits range from 25 to 50.

On the New Jersey turnpike and the Garden State parkway, where the legal limit is 60 m.p.h., revocation will be applied to anyone going 70 or more.

New Jersey officials, impressed by Connecticut's mandatory revocation plan, hope the new system will cut deaths on the state's roads, the most heavily traveled in the world. So far this year, New Jersey ranks as the third safest state in the nation in traffic deaths per mile traveled. Connecticut is first.

Licenses will be revoked for 30 days on the first offense. There will be no exceptions or extenuating circumstances considered. A second offense will bring a 60-day revocation and a third an indefinite suspension.

Scores Flee Brush Fire In San Diego

SAN DIEGO (P)—Scores of residents in the city's North Clairemont district—forced to flee by a near disastrous brush fire—were back in their homes today.

At the height of the wind-whipped fire, which broke out in a canyon about noon yesterday, flames roared two stories high, hurled streets and sent smoldering embers into many yards.

DAMAGE SLIGHT

However, structural damage was slight. A garage was gutted and few fences charred. An estimated 25 blocks of canyon area was blackened.

The fire, whipped by 30-mile-an-hour winds, burned along the San Clemente Canyon at the extreme northern edge of the Clairemont district, licking into finger canyons and stopping just a few feet away from the new homes in the recently completed development.

Two hundred firemen, called out by four alarms, controlled the fire after a two-and-one-half hour battle.

LIKELY PATH

Deputy Fire Chief Al Penrose said that if the fire had not been stopped where it was it could have burned on down San Clemente Canyon to Highway 101, endangering an additional 1,000 homes.

Fire Marshal S. M. Franklin said a 12-year-old boy caused the blaze. He said the boy admitted he dropped a charred book of matches in a canyon.

Mrs. E. E. Stevens, who fled her home with her 6-month-old son in her arms and leading another son, 2, said embers scorched her children's clothing. "The wind blew it off us before fire could start," she said.

Jewish Center Sets Annual Member Meet

Louis H. Blumenthal, executive director of the San Francisco Jewish Community Center, will be principal speaker Monday night at the 12th annual membership meeting of the Marin Jewish Community Center, 1618 Mission avenue, San Rafael.

Center directors for 1959 will be elected at the 8 o'clock public meeting, and an audience-panel discussion will be held for the purpose of reviewing 1958 center programs and considering future plans and prospects.

Nominees for directorships, selected by the center's nominating committee, are Mrs. Saul Smith, Mrs. Sam Goldbaum, Dr. Martin Brownstein, Harry Yaffee, Sol Silver, Julius H. Selinger and Dr. Philip Corin, all incumbents, and Mrs. S. Malvern Dorinson, Maurice Koch and Bernard Savin.

Blumenthal, a professional in the Jewish center movement and author of three books on social work, will speak on the Jewish Community Center as part of a national movement and its uniqueness in each community.

CAA Disappears Into New Agency

WASHINGTON (P)—The Civil Aeronautics Administration vanished today from the aviation scene it long has dominated. It merged quietly into the swiftly expanding new Federal Aviation Agency.

FAA also absorbed an important segment of the CAA's companion agency, the Civil Aeronautics Board, by taking over the rule-making functions of the CAB's Bureau of Safety.

The transition marked the assembly for the first time of all the major elements of the over-all agency ordered by Congress last fall to take over the reins of civil and military flying.

Franco Lauds De Gaulle

MADRID (P)—Generalissimo Francisco Franco told his countrymen in an annual New Year message that Spain is "in the most fertile period of internal peace and security" it has known in more than 200 years.

At the same time he warned of the continuing dangers of world communism and praised the French government of Gen. Charles de Gaulle for ending a situation that had endangered the heart of Western Europe.

THIEVES ALMOST GO WHOLE HOG

Gasoline thieves almost succeeded in stealing the gas tank itself from a parked car in Mill Valley.

Robert J. Oliphant of 146 Almonte boulevard called the sheriff at 12:40 a.m. yesterday. He said the gasoline lines on his 1951 two-door sedan had been disconnected, and only one bolt held the tank of the car.

Rock Blasting Approved At Fairfax Hill

Dynamite blasting has been authorized by the Fairfax City Council for the remains of a hill on the north side of Sir Francis Drake boulevard, directly west of Big Bear Market.

The five Fairfax city councilmen unanimously voted to grant a blasting permit to Charles L. Harney, San Francisco contractor who lives in San Rafael.

Harney's machines have been excavating the Drake boulevard property and have hit what is believed to be blue serpentine rock.

The permit to blast will expire on March 3. The company is required to file a $10,000 surety bond with the city clerk before blasting can begin. Harney is also required to notify Police Chief Andy J. Peri at what times each day the dynamite charges will be set off.

William Glynn, who appeared at Monday's council meeting to represent the excavator, said "blasting is a misnomer—we're trying to fracture the rock, not blast it." He said the "rock fracturing" probably would begin next week.

The property has a 600-foot frontage on Drake boulevard and extends back 150 feet. Owner C. J. Carroll of San Francisco has been approached by three oil companies for a service station site, said Glynn. There is also a possibility of stores locating on the property, he said.

Most of the dirt and rock taken from the Fairfax site has been used for fill in Larkspur construction projects.

Tousey Elected DeMolay Adviser

R. F. Tousey of Strawberry has been elected chapter adviser of the Mill Valley Chapter of De Molay, Vernon C. Gustafsson, chairman of the advisory council, reported today.

Tousey succeeds Adolph Casper, who has served in the post for three years. He is the father of James and Robert Tousey, both past master councilors of the Mill Valley chapter.

Gustafsson was re-elected council chairman and Arthur Sweeten, secretary. Other members of the advisory council are Casper, Forrest T. C. Gist, Charles E. Hatch, Harold Jones, Sidney Rapp, Mathias Kennedy, Ralph Brott, James Betts and Hollis Smith. Junior advisors are Robert Clewett, William Wood and James Tousey.

Prison Inmates To See 7-Hour Variety Show

San Quentin's 44th annual New Year's Day "Show of Stars" tomorrow promises to be one of the best seven-hour variety shows ever staged at the institution, according to producer Bill Van Ornum of San Francisco, who coordinates the Bay Area night-club acts which perform gratis for the prisoners.

In past years George Shearing, Ernestine Anderson, Paul Desmond, Johnny Cash and a host of other big-name entertainers have appeared in the extravaganza. Van Ornum and his associates of the Actors, Musicians and Stage Hands Unions fully expect the 1959 version to equal and probably surpass the others.

Among the talent will be Paul Gilbert, young television and screen comic, who will emcee the complete revue from Bimbo's 365 Club.

Peninsula entrepreneur Phil Philley of San Jose will bring a full troupe including Red Foley, star of the nationwide weekly radio and television "Red Foley Show," Norma Mc-

Call, Smiley Davis and his western band and featuring "Cottonseed Clark," Mrs. Jubilee, U.S.A., according to a press release.

Luz Garcia of the Sinaloa Mexican Cantina and restaurant of San Francisco will send her complete show, as she has for many years. Among the stars will be the dance team of Taresa and Antonio and a new act direct from Mexico City, the Los Chucuelos Trio.

Also on the show will be singers, precision-dancers, jazz bands, and nostalgic bits of burlesque by Higgy King and Tony Lo Cicero of the San Francisco President Follies. Other comedy routines and acrobatic acts will round out the day's program.

All the prison's population will not be able to enjoy the show because of lack of seating facilities. The audience will be trimmed according to seniority and the others may watch bowl football games on television to celebrate the holiday.

Smoking On Buses To Be Allowed In State After All

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The state Public Utilities Commission has modified an earlier order prohibiting smoking on long-line buses operating within California.

Cigarette smoking will be permitted on the last four rows, the Commission said yesterday, provided that buses are equipped with ventilating blowers to clear the air and ash trays are provided. This regulation concerns only inter-city buses operating over routes of 50 miles or more.

Last year the commission issued an order banning smoking on the buses. This resulted in a protest from the California Bus Assn., which claimed that modern buses were well ventilated and that smoking was not a hardship on non-smokers.

Pipe and cigar smoking on buses is prohibited. The new order takes effect next Feb. 28.

Bid Opening Postponed On Courthouse Job

Opening of bids on repainting the old section of the Marin County courthouse, originally set for yesterday, has been postponed to Jan. 6.

Postponement is due to the fact the board of supervisors decided to skip its regular Tuesday meeting this week and will not meet again until Jan. 6. The paint job has been estimated at $15,000.

Planners To Consider Bid For Boat Shop

Application of James E. Townsend for an adjustment to permit construction of a building at 707 Grant avenue, Novato, adjacent to Jim's Sport Shop, will be considered by the county planning commission at 10 a. m. Monday.

The building is to be used for display and sales of boats.

Muskrat fur, from the animal which lives in the marshlands, is waterproof.

Middle U.S. To Greet '59 Under Snow

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—A large part of the Midwest and Southwest will greet the new year under a cover of snow, four to 10 inches deep.

After covering New Mexico earlier this week, a moisture-laden storm moved east and north yesterday. It cut deep into Texas, then dropped four to eight inches of snow on parts of Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri.

SLOW MOVEMENT

Its slow movement was expected to continue across south-east Kansas into northeast Missouri. Along the south and eastern edges of the snow—roughly from St. Louis southwest to north central Arkansas and northeast Texas—there was sleet and freezing rain.

Thirteen deaths, most from traffic accidents, have been attributed to the storm.

ROADS HAZARDOUS

Roads were hazardous throughout the storm area. The wet weather in the mid-continent was expected to extend over wide areas during the day, from eastern sections of Texas and Oklahoma northward through Tennessee and Kentucky and across the Ohio Valley into the southern Great lakes.

Nation Gets New State, Flag Saturday

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation gets a new state and a new flag Saturday.

President Eisenhower will sign the proclamation making Alaska the 49th state at a formal ceremony in the White House Saturday noon. He will fly to Washington for the purpose and return later to the Gettysburg, Pa., farm for the remainder of the weekend.

The new state enters the Union immediately. The new flag will become official next July 4, but flagmakers in New York said Monday they would have a few of the 49-star flags available as early as next week.

The flag design will not be announced until Saturday. There was speculation it would consist of the present 13 stripes, with seven rows of seven stars each in the blue field.

The design was picked from nearly 2,000 suggestions received by a screening committee.

Flagmakers are eager to begin production of the new version. They expect to have flags ready within a day or two, but not many. A backlog of orders has piled up.

The new design for the stars will not affect the proportions of the old flag. Manufacturers can tear out the blue field on present inventory stocks, burn it, and substitute the new blue background.

Phone Receiver Stolen From San Rafael High

A telephone receiver was stolen from the book room of San Rafael High School during Christmas weekend, police reported today.

Marie Anna Woelf, who is in charge of the book room, reported to work Monday and found the phone lines cut and the receiver gone. Other valuable equipment like typewriters were not touched.

The thief had broken a window near the east side door to open the lock and enter. The theft occurred between Dec. 23 and Monday.

'DEFIANT ONE' BEST '58 FILM SAY N.Y. CRITICS

NEW YORK (UPI)—"The Defiant One" has been selected by New York film critics as the best movie of 1958.

The 15 film reviewers from metropolitan daily newspapers yesterday also voted its director, Stanley Kramer, the best director of the year. The scenario was judged the best screen play of the year.

Susan Hayward won the best actress award for her portrayal of a doomed woman in "I Want to Live." David Niven was named best actor for his role in "Separate Tables."

REGISTRATION OF AUTOS OPENS FRIDAY

SACRAMENTO (AP)—It's auto registration time again, and you can start paying Friday.

The state already has mailed registration cards to the state's seven and one-half million auto owners. Registration runs through Feb. 4.

A feature of this year's registration is the new station wagon law, which lets the owners haul anything except passengers for hire, but costs $9 instead of $8.

The registration fee is only part of the story for everyone. There's also a license fee based on 2 per cent of the vehicle's value.

Radio Panel To Discuss School Merger Plan

The proposed merger of Novato Unified and San Jose Elementary School Districts will be discussed by four panelists Friday from 9 to 10 a. m. on radio station KTIM "Marin Sound-ing Board" program.

Panel members will be William J. J. Smith, superintendent of the Novato district; Philip W. Schneider, superintendent of the San Jose district; Richard L. Foster, Marin County superintendent of schools, and Jack Farrar, member of the San Jose district board.

Kitty Oppenheimer will moderate the program, to be re-broadcast Sunday at 12:30 p. m. from a recording. Listeners' questions will be answered by panelists during the Friday broadcast.

The "Sounding Board," normally heard Thursday mornings will be heard one day later this week because of the New Year's Day holiday. Friday's broadcast will start the seventh year of the popular "Sounding Board" series, on which matters of importance to Marin and the entire Bay Area are debated.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Boys Flag Train

BRANFORD, Conn. (AP)—Two boys flagged a 100-car freight train last night.

The train stopped. Crewmen asked the boys what their trouble was.

No trouble. The boys, who had been visiting a girl friend here, just wanted a ride back to New York City.

Railroad police turned the boys, aged 14 and 15, over to juvenile authorities.

Appendix For Freedom

SVENDBORG, Denmark (AP)—A Polish sailor got himself rushed to the hospital so he could stay in the West. His ship sailed without him last night, but the sailor paid for his freedom with an appendix he didn't need to lose.

The 22-year-old seaman complained to the captain of the Polish ship that his stomach ached. He was allowed ashore to see a doctor.

Crying loudly, he went to the office of a shipping company which called an ambulance. At the hospital, the doctors rushed him to the operating table and removed his appendix without a diagnosis.

Conscious again after the operation, the sailor admitted he had feigned illness to get away from his ship.

Truce In China War

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—A three-day New Year truce initiated by the Chinese Nationalists went into effect today.

The Communist command in Fukien province agreed to the tacit Nationalist appeal for a 72-hour cease-fire in the sporadic exchange of shelling around the Nationalist-held offshore islands.

The Quemoy Island garrison had announced that the defenders would not reply to artillery fire for three days starting today.

Mountbatten Honored

LONDON (AP)—Adm. Earl Mountbatten, 58-year-old service chief of the Royal Navy and one of the British nobility's brightest figures, will become the country's first military man next July.

The government announced today that Mountbatten, first sea lord since April, 1955 and the uncle of Prince Philip, would become chairman of the Chiefs of Staff Committee, the British equivalent of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Malraux Son Stricken

TURIN, Italy (UPI)—Gauthier Malraux, 18-year-old son of French author and Minister of State Andre Malraux, was rushed to Martini Hospital here last night from the nearby Bardonecchia ski resort with pneumonia. Doctors said his condition was serious.

U. S. Tells War Profit

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Asst. Atty. Gen. Dallas S. Townsend said in a year-end report that the government made 14 million dollars this year from liquidation of enemy assets seized during World War II.

Townsend noted that still hanging fire is the big case involving 93 per cent of the capital stock of General Aniline and Film Corp., valued at more than 100 million dollars.

Police To Be Picketed

NEW YORK (UPI)—James R. Hoffa's Teamsters Union was revealed today set to try to organize 15 American police forces. First step is a New York drive involving picketing of headquarters, precinct stations and supply depots.

Police Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy angrily pledged to fight with every legal weapon any interference with operation of the 23,600-man force.

Henry Feinstein, Teamster representative in New York, said the picketing, set to start Jan. 12, was in no way a strike move and that no attempt would be made to interfere with police supplies by asking truckers or other union members not to cross picket lines.

"We do not believe policemen should go out on strike," he said. "We do not believe police should have the right to strike. This will simply be a demonstration to bring home to the public the policemen's plight."

TV Bans Fake Medics

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A television industry ban against using actors to portray doctors, nurses or dentists on commercials goes into effect tomorrow.

The National Assn. of Broadcasters adopted an amendment to its code last June providing that "only accredited members of these professions" appear in such commercials. The six-month delay in putting the ban into effect was "so that filmed commercials already in use could be revised or replaced."

Life On Mars Possible

WASHINGTON (UPI)—An Air Force biologist said today research has shown that certain forms of life would be just as able to live on Mars as on earth.

Lt. Col. John D. Fulton, of the School of Aviation Medicine at Randolph Air Force Base, Tex., made the report to a panel of the 1958 convention of the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science (AAAS).

Fulton said that the laboratory tests on which he based his statement were limited to "simple terrestrial forms of life."

Air Strikes Continue

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL
Striking flight engineers offered to reopen negotiations to end a 38-day-old walkout against Eastern Air Lines today, but there was no break in the strike of pilots against American Airlines.

A spokesman for the engineers union at Miami, Fla., said the union would accept proposals to resolve issues in the walkout made by a federal mediator "with only minor changes."

The National Mediation Board yesterday issued a rare public appeal for an end to the walkout and submission of unresolved issues to arbitration. J. H. Brock, Eastern vice president, agreed to accept the board's appeal if the union did likewise.

However, the engineers turned down the board's proposal and instead called for resumption of negotiations.

North Marin Water Usage Up 28 Per Cent

Water consumption in 1958 by residents of the North Marin Water District increased by 28 per cent over 1957, Jerome B. Gilbert, district chief engineer, said today.

The district grew by 286 customers during the year, bringing the total number to 4,177.

Construction projects totaled about $225,000 and included a $53,000 storage tank in Lynwood, replacement of a mile-long main line to serve Black Point and Atherton and Olive avenues, at a cost of $30,000, and a new $13,000 booster pump at the treatment plant for increasing pressure throughout most of the district.

MAJOR WORK

Water line development, largely in new subdivisions, has constituted the major work in the district during the year. About five miles of pipelines were laid.

District personnel now numbers 22, an increase of five over 1957, Gilbert reported. Gilbert is expected to replace A. T. McLaughlin as general manager after his retirement. Other new personnel includes two engineers, a treatment plant operator and an accountant.

The district has begun a major engineering study of future needs and sources of water. A public report on possible recommendation for a major bond issue are expected in the spring.

STORAGE TANK

Earmarked for construction soon is a $2,500 storage tank in Black Point, to replace an old redwood tank, and a pressure tank system, estimated to cost about $1,500, to increase in the Sutro-Vineyard road area.

One of the district's major problems during the year was that of thick-growing algae in the waters of Lake Stafford. Treatment of the plant life caused a bad taste. Closer laboratory controls are planned for the coming months, which "may or may not" eliminate the problem, Gilbert said.

Boat With Three Survivors Of Sunk Tug Sought

SAN FRANCISCO (P)—Coast Guard planes and ships searched through the night for a 16-foot boat with three men who abandoned their sinking tug off the Oregon coast.

The men, whose names are unavailable, radioed at 3:15 p.m. yesterday that their salvage tug, Elsie T, had struck an object 20 miles off Brookings, Ore., and was taking water. A companion ship, the Ceebee, messaged an hour later that the trio had taken to a 16-foot whaleboat in calm seas.

The Ceebee and the Elsie T were en route together from Coos Bay, Ore., to San Francisco.

The Coast Guard said in San Francisco that the cutter Bonham from Coos Bay, an 83-foot cutter from Crescent City, the cutter Avoyel from Eureka, and three Coast Guard planes joined in a search for the tug crewmen.

In 2 Years, Legislators Drew Average $19,380

Neither party lines nor the distance they had to travel to the capitol had much bearing on the amounts California's legislators drew in pay from the state treasury the past two years.

During the two-year life of the Legislature which ends today, its members drew $2,325,607, or an average of $19,380 each, a compilation by Capitol News Service showed today.

THAT'S WHY HE HADN'T MADE A MOVE

DETROIT (P)—For the last 18 months Ray Pearson has been playing a game of chess by mail with Wallis A. Cady of Clearwater, Fla.

Cady wrote yesterday to remind Pearson he hadn't made a move in seven months.

"I thought it was his move," Pearson explained.

Census Will Mail Form In Advance

WASHINGTON (P)—An advance report form will be mailed to every household in the nation in advance of the 1960 census.

It isn't to be filled in and returned, officials explained today. The possibility of such a do-it-yourself census had been considered, but plans for it were abandoned after a test in Memphis, Tenn., last year showed imperfections.

The advance report forms will, however, give residents a chance to have the answers ready for the census takers who will visit them as they have each 10 years in the past. Its use is expected to increase both the speed and the accuracy of the nose count, officials said.

The nation's population is expected to total 180 million persons by 1960.

The census enumerators, as part of counting them, will take information on each person's relation to the head of the household, his age, sex, color or race, marital status and date of birth.

Youth Of Church Help Out Needy

Donations of canned foods and other items were distributed to a number of needy families on Christmas by members of the youth department of Marin City's Gospel Fellowship Church.

Divided into several groups, the young people collected the contributions during a door-to-door drive Dec. 23. Group captains were Lacinda Porter, Cecilia Randolph, Melva Samuels and Ruth Randolph.

"It was a thrill for these young people to do such good deeds," said Rev. L. D. Samuels, pastor.

County IBMs Take Over School Payroll

Marin County's 1,700 school teachers will start off the new year with a new type of paychecks hot off the IBM machines in the county's data processing bureau.

Auditor Leon A. de Lisle announced today that IBM machines have taken over the processing of paychecks for all teachers in the county's elementary and high schools and College of Marin. The December checks, "punch card" type, will be distributed to teachers this week.

TWO-DAY JOB

Under supervision of de Lisle and Michael Mitchell, administrative accountant, the data processing bureau whipped out the entire payroll for all school districts in two days. Arleigh Sewell, head of data processing, and chief aide John Gibbs handled the actual IBM processing.

Up to now, each school district hand-processed the payrolls, and the county superintendent of schools had to audit and approve them. Hereafter, the auditor's office will run the entire payroll through the IBM machines.

The machines automatically compute the monthly income tax withholdings, retirement, insurance and other deductions.

KEEP TOTAL

They also keep a cumulative total of the various items so that on the last paycheck for the year, the electronic devices automatically come up with the year's total salary, withholding tax and deductions.

The county's payroll has been processed by IBM for the past year. The school payroll has now been added to the IBM workload. Welfare payments may also go on IBM by next September, Auditor de Lisle said.

For the month of December, the schools' payrolls totaled $770,000, with net take-home pay amounting to $554,660. The balance went for such deductions as $107,649 income tax withholding, $7,752 health insurance, $1,084 life insurance, and $74,618 retirement.

Bolinas Club Dance

Hal Saunders and his Marin County Club Orchestra will play at the annual New Year's dance of the Bolinas Beach Improvement Club Saturday night at the organization's Mesa Clubhouse. A potluck dinner, scheduled for 7 o'clock, will precede the dance.

San Rafael High Adult Classes Start Monday

Classes for adults will resume at San Rafael High School on Monday evening.

There will be no charge for any of the classes offered except driving training, announced R. R. Royle, director. Persons interested in enrolling should go to the school office on the night indicated. All classes run from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Offered on Monday evenings are citizenship, sewing, beginning typing, wood shop, beginning and intermediate Spanish.

Wednesday evenings, classes in English for the foreign born and in intermediate and advanced typing are offered.

The next driver training class will start Jan. 19, provided enough persons enroll. Those interested are asked to write or telephone Royle at the high school. There is a charge of $14, payable upon enrollment.

The adult program is also conducting classes at Hamilton Air Force Base in U.S. history, beginning algebra, high school English, high school mathematics and civics. While these classes are primarily for the convenience of service-connected personnel, they are open also to adults who wish to work toward their high school diplomas, Royle said. These classes are given two evenings per week from 6:30 to 9 p.m. at Hamilton.

Parent education classes in connection with the day nursery school are also carried on at both Terra Linda and San Rafael.
